The Promise and Performance of Environmental Conflict Resolution

Rosemary O'Leary, Lisa B. Bingham, 2003 Environmental conflict resolution ECR is a process of negotiation that allows stakeholders in a dispute to reach a mutually satisfactory agreement on their own terms The tools of ECR such as facilitation mediation and conflict assessment suggest that it fits well with other ideas for reforming environmental policy First used in 1974 ECR has been an official part of policymaking since the mid 1990s This is the first book to evaluate systematically the results of these efforts The contributions to this book critically investigate the record and potential of ECR drawing on perspectives from political science public administration regional planning philosophy psychology anthropology and law

Environmental Governance Reconsidered Robert F. Durant, Daniel J. Fiorino, Rosemary O'Leary, 2004-05-07 A comprehensive in depth and thematically integrated analysis of key issues in environmental governance today from perspectives including environmental economics democratic theory public policy law political science and public administration

Resolving International Conflicts Jacob Bercovitch, 1996 Mediation is one of the most important methods of settling conflicts in the post Cold War world This text represents the most recent trends in the process and practice of international mediation      Managing Interpersonal Conflict Nancy A. Burrell, Mike Allen, Barbara Mae Gayle, Raymond W. Preiss, 2014-02-05 Managing Interpersonal Conflict is a systematic review of conflict research in legal institutional and relational contexts Each chapter represents a summary of the existing quantitative social science research using meta analysis with contexts ranging from jury selection to peer mediation to homophobia reduction The contributors provide connections between cutting edge scholarship about abstract theoretical arguments the needs of instructional and training pedagogy and practical applications of information The meta analysis approach produces a unique informational resource offering answers to key research questions addressing conflict This volume serves as an invaluable resource for studying conflict mediation negotiation and facilitation in coursework implementing and planning training programs designing interventions creating workshops and conducting studies of conflict      Working Through Environmental Conflict Steven E. Daniels, Gregg B. Walker, 2001-04-30 Environmental and natural resource policy decision making is changing Increasingly citizens and management agency personnel are seeking ways to do things differently to participate meaningfully in the decision making process as parties work through policy conflicts Doing things differently has come to mean doing things collaboratively Daniels and Walker examine collaboration in environmental and natural resource policy decision making and conflict management They address collaboration by featuring a method collaborative learning that has been designed to address decision making and conflict management needs in complex and controversial policy settings As they illustrate collaborative learning differs in some significant ways from existing approaches for dealing with policy decision making public participation and conflict management First it is a hybrid of systems thinking and alternative dispute resolution concepts Second it is grounded explicitly in experiential team or organizational and adult learning theories It is a theory based framework through which parties can make progress in the management of controversial environmental policy situations They discuss both the theory and technique of collaborative learning and present cases where it has been applied This is a professional and teaching tool for scholars students and researchers involved with environmental issues as well as dispute resolution      The Oxford Handbook of Environmental and Conservation Psychology Susan D. Clayton, 2012-10-18 First handbook to integrate environmental psychology and conservation psychology      Environmental Mediation and Conflict Management R. Rajagopal, 1980      Dispute System Design Lisa Blomgren Amsler, Janet Martinez, Stephanie E. Smith, 2020-06-02 Dispute System Design walks readers through the art of successfully designing a system for preventing managing and resolving conflicts and legally framed disputes Drawing on decades of expertise as instructors and consultants the authors show how dispute systems design can be used within all types of organizations including business firms nonprofit organizations and international and transnational bodies This book has two parts the first teaches readers the foundations of Dispute System Design DSD describing bedrock concepts and case chapters exploring DSD across a range of experiences including public and community justice conflict within and beyond organizations international and comparative systems and multi jurisdictional and complex systems This book is intended for anyone who is interested in the theory or practice of DSD who uses or wants to understand mediation arbitration court trial or other dispute resolution processes or who designs or improves existing processes and systems      Making Sense of Intractable Environmental Conflicts Roy Lewicki, Barbara Gray, Michael Elliott, 2003 Despite a vast amount of effort and expertise devoted to them many environmental conflicts have remained mired in controversy stubbornly defying resolution Why can some environmental problems be resolved in one locale but remain contentious in another often carrying on for decades What is it about certain issues or the people involved that make a conflict seemingly insoluble Making Sense of Intractable Environmental Conflicts addresses those and related questions examining what researchers and experts in the field characterize as intractable disputes intense disputes that persist over long periods of time and cannot be resolved through consensus building efforts or by administrative legal or political means The approach focuses on the frames parties use to define and enact the dispute the lenses through which they interpret and understand the conflict and critical conflict dynamics Through analysis of interviews news media coverage meeting transcripts and archival data the contributors to the book examine the concepts of frames framing and reframing and the role that framing plays in conflicts outline the essential characteristics of intractability and its major causes offer case studies of eight intractable environmental conflicts present a rich body of original interview material from affected parties set forth recommendations for intervention that can help resolve disputes Within each case chapter the authors describe the historical development and fundamental nature of the conflict and then analyze the case from the perspective of the key frames that are integral to understanding the dynamics of the dispute They also offer cross case analyses of related conflicts Conflicts examined include those over natural resource use toxic pollutants water quality and growth Specific conflicts examined are the Quincy Library Group in California Voyageurs National Park in Minnesota Edwards Aquifer in Texas Doan Brook in Cleveland Ohio the Antidegradation Environmental Advisory Group in Ohio Drake Chemical in Pennsylvania Alton Park Piney Woods in Tennessee and three examples of growth related conflicts along the Front Range of Colorado s Rocky Mountains      Environmental Conflict Management Tracylee Clarke, Tarla Rai Peterson, 2015-03-04 A step by step guide connecting theory to practice Environmental Conflict Management introduces students to the research and practice of environmental conflict and provides a step by step process for engaging stakeholders and other interested parties in the management of environmental disputes In each chapter authors Dr Tracylee Clarke and Dr Tarla Rai Peterson first introduce a specific concept or process step and then provide exercises worksheets role plays and brief case studies so students can directly apply what they are learning The appendix includes six additional extended case studies for further analysis In addition to providing practical steps for understanding and managing conflict the text identifies the most relevant laws and policies to help students make more informed decisions Students will develop techniques for public involvement and community outreach strategies for effective meeting management approaches to negotiating options and methodologies for communicating concerns and working through differences and outlines for implementing and evaluating strategies for sustaining positive community relations      ADR Report ,2000      The Sydney Law Review ,1998      The Negotiation of Environmental Conflicts Edward Duensing,Yvonne Chilik,1986      Dispute Resolution Journal ,1997      Environmental Conflict and Alternative Dispute Resolution Elizabeth Swanson,Environmental Law Centre (Alta.),1995      A Review of Environmental Mediation Carolyn Blackford,1992      Environmental Mediation Frederick Frankena,Joann Koelln Frankena,1988      AALS Mini-workshop on Alternative Dispute Resolution ,1996      Public Administration Series--Bibliography ,1986
