Challenges to Local Governance in the Pandemic Era John S. Moolakkattu, Jos Chathukulam, 2022-03-18 The COVID 19 pandemic has brought the question of local governance and inter governmental coordination to the centre of public administration. There is a general feeling across the world that the local government space is critical in managing pandemics. This volume is a collection of articles on the experiences of the local governments in dealing with the COVID 19 pandemic. Although the focus is on South Asia especially India it also provides perspectives on Europe Africa and Latin America. The book will appeal to researchers policy makers and practitioners who are interested in the interface between public health and local governance particularly during emergencies. It also provides clues about the design of sustainable policy and governance including the type of intergovernmental relations that should emerge in the post COVID situation VM/SAC,

Veterinary Medicine/small Animal Clinician, 1981 Biotech Funding Trends Alexandra Carina Gruber, 2008-12-17 Based on interviews with successful biotech entrepreneurs and high level investors as well as case studies this title provides a comprehensive overview of current trends in biotech funding. In particular it illustrates the tensions between both sides based on their different backgrounds and expectations. The book outlines the various funding opportunities for the biotech industry and identifies ways for both sides to overcome their existing prejudices in order to successfully thrive in a competitive environment. A must have for biotech entrepreneurs and investors as well as invaluable supplementary reading for students aspiring to a career in the industry

Halal Development: Trends, Opportunities and Challenges Heri Pratikto, Ahmad Taufiq, Adam Voak, Nurdeng Deuraseh, Hadi Nur, Winai Dahlan, Idris, Agus Purnomo, 2021-07-22 The increasing demand for halal products including goods and services every year especially for food and beverages has resulted in a growing need for products with halal guarantees. Along with the increasing trend of the global demand it has resulted in an increase in producers of halal food and beverages in both Muslim and non Muslim countries. In addition the demand for halal tourism is also increasing. Indonesia is one of the largest Muslim countries in the world. However there are still many Muslim consumer actors and Muslim producer actors who do not yet have an awareness of the importance of complying with the provisions of Islamic law in consuming and producing goods and services. There are still many restaurants and hotels that serve food and drinks that are not certified halal. There are still many food medicinal and cosmetic products that are not halal certified. But now many secular countries such as France Canada Australia the United States Britain are also halal certified with the aim of meeting the Muslim demand for halal products for food and beverage including for halal tourism. Starting from the development of the halal industry both in the fields of food beverages and services an International Seminar was held which provides a more complete understanding of halal products current halal developments and can serve as motivation to produce halal products providing research results from the topic of halal development. The international seminar entitled International Conference on Halal Development listed speakers from several countries able to provide an
