Ice Cream: Cup or Cone?

Normal people come from two different groups and have to decide from a cup or a cone. This assignment has your classmate come into two groups and work with their own members.

Normal people like the comfort of a cup. They enjoy it's easier to eat their dessert this way. They have nothing more to do but eat their dessert from a cup. They don't have to worry about melting the dessert like a cone.

Other people like cones. They find the comfort of a cup is not good enough. They may be eating their dessert from a cup but still not happy. They have to eat their dessert from a cone. They have to eat their dessert from a cone because they are not comfortable eating from a cup. They feel like they are missing out on something, especially when eating from a cone. Normal people think cones are not good enough.

In your world of two different cones, the following students should go and have a cone. Make a list and answer this assignment has different student names from groups, work with their own members.

Normal people who like cones and the ice cream in a cone. They like it's easier to eat and not melt. They are excited to taste their dessert eating from a cup. They feel like they are missing out on something, especially when eating from a cone. Normal people like cones because they are not good enough.

Other people like cones. They find the comfort of a cup is not good enough. They may be eating their dessert from a cup but still not happy. They have to eat their dessert from a cone. They have to eat their dessert from a cone because they are not comfortable eating from a cup. They feel like they are missing out on something, especially when eating from a cone. Normal people think cones are not good enough.

Prompt

Do you like to eat dessert in a cup or a cone? Explain who you "are" by the way you eat dessert. List the pros and cons of each assignment.

After you've read about the great three scoops above, what is your position? Do you prefer the cones or the cups? Why? Write down random and relevant eating experiences from the passage and your own experiences.
