On Air A Night Owl Serial:

Radio in the Movies Laurence Etling, 2014-01-10 This richly detailed examination of two branches of American entertainment focuses on the various ways that radio stations and air personalities have been depicted in motion pictures from 1926's The Radio Detective to more recent films like 2006's A Prairie Home Companion. Cinematic portrayals of various aspects of radio are covered including disc jockeys, sports broadcasts, religious programs, and the talk radio format. Such films as The Big Broadcast 1932, Reveille with Beverly 1943, Mister Rock and Roll 1957, WUSA 1970, Radio Days 1987, and Private Parts 1997 provide fascinating insights not only into their own times but also into the historical eras that some of these films have endeavored to recreate. A chronological filmography of more than 600 titles is included. K - I - L - L Fm 100 Teric Darken, 2010-07-20 Disc jockey Carter The Cart Man Jackson has been climbing the stairway to heaven, keeping his life as simple as possible by living from one song to the next. He had the world by the tail, coming from a family of power, prestige, and politics until he let it all go. Killer Queen is burning up the highway to hell, terrorizing a town in her crimson red stilettos by holding random men at gunpoint. She had nothing except a dad who abused her and now she has nothing to lose. K I L L FM 100 is the visual soundtrack of two opposing lives colliding head on at a destined radio station. As Killer Queen puts the DJ under the gun during his night shift, she begins to question who the real hostage is as she confronts the demons of her past. And as the DJ shines his light into her darkened world, a few shadows of his own begin to loom from his closet. When the lane narrows on this solitary stretch of highway, both captor and captive realize that something's got to give. Someone's got to go. Closing in fast on this dead end drive, two souls discover that their lives are not so different; each has lived under a mask and each is in dire need of genuine love. A full-throttle storyline injected with one of the most unique twists ever unleashed. K I L L FM 100 is the thriller that reads like a soundtrack. There's a time for everything under heaven. Killer Queen knows there's a time to kill. Short stories [formerly Magazine of short stories]., 1895 Motion Pictures Library of Congress. Title: Every person is unique, but science has struggled to pinpoint where precisely that uniqueness resides. Our genome may determine our eye color and even aspects of our character. But our friendships, failures, and passions also shape who we are. The question is: How? Sebastian Seung is at the forefront of a revolution in neuroscience. He believes that our identity lies not in our genes but in the connections between our brain cells, our particular wiring. Seung and a dedicated group of researchers are leading the effort to map these connections: neuron by neuron, synapse by synapse. It's a monumental effort, but if they succeed, they will uncover the basis of personality, identity, intelligence, memory, and perhaps disorders such as autism and schizophrenia Connectome is a mind bending adventure story offering a daring scientific and technological vision for understanding what makes us who we are as individuals and as a species This is complicated stuff and it is a testament to Dr Seung s remarkable clarity of exposition that the reader is swept along with his enthusiasm as he moves from the basics of neuroscience out to the farthest regions of the hypothetical sketching out a spectacularly illustrated giant map of the universe of man The New York Times An elegant primer on what s known about how the brain is organized and how it grows wires its neurons perceives its environment modifies or repairs itself and stores information Seung is a clear lively writer who chooses vivid examples The Washington Post Motion Pictures, 1912-1939 Library of Congress.
