The Migrant's Time Saloni Mathur, 2011-09-27 The conditions of alienation and exclusion are inextricably linked to the experience of the migrant. This volume explores both the increasing emergence of the theme of migration as a dominant subject matter in art as well as the ways in which the varied mobilities of a globalized world have radically reshaped art's conditions of production, reception and display. In a selection of essays fourteen distinguished scholars explore the universality of conditions of global migration and interdependence, inviting a rethinking of existing perspectives in postcolonial, transnational and diaspora studies and laying the foundation for empirical and theoretical directions beyond the terms of these traditional frameworks.

Building Modern Antiquity Georgia Giannakopoulou, 2024-11-29 This book considers post 19th century Athens as a unique instance of a secret side of metropolitan capitalism. With a focus on modern antiquity as the hidden element of the dialectic between the past and the present, it suggests that the sociological study of one of the great European capital cities, a city not intended as a modern capital and its architectural representations may expose part of the veiled processes of the reconstruction of the past, thus shedding light on the abuse of antiquity for the celebration of European capitalist metropolitan modernity. From the glorious white marble cityscape of the 19th century that aimed at re-enchanting metropolitan modernity to the inglorious grey reinforced concrete 21st century metropolis, modern Athens exposes the battle between the modern and a modern image of antiquity, a false socially constructed historiography born of the dialectics between the ancient and the modern, the new and the old, collective memory and collective forgetting. As such, The Building of a Modern Antiquity will appeal to scholars of sociology with interests in social and critical theory, urban studies, sociology of architecture and visual sociology.

Modern Religious Architecture in Germany, Ireland and Beyond Lisa Godson, Kathleen James-Chakraborty, 2019-03-07 Modernity and religion are not mutually exclusive. Setting German and Irish church, synagogue and mosque architecture side by side over the last century highlights the place for the celebration of the new within faiths whose appeal lies in part in the stability of belief they offer across time. Inspired by radically modern German churches of the 1920s and 1930s, this volume offers new insights into designers of all three types of sacred buildings working at home and abroad. It offers new scholarship on the unknown phenomenon of mid century ecclesiastical architecture in sub-Saharan Africa by Irish designers, a critical appraisal of the overlooked Frank Lloyd Wright trained Andrew Devane and an analysis of accommodating difficult pasts and challenging futures with contemporary synagogue and mosque architecture in Germany. With a focus on influence and processes alongside conservationists and historians, it features critical insights by the designers of some of the most celebrated contemporary sacred buildings including Niall McLaughlin who writes on his multiple award winning Bishop Edward King Chapel and Amandus Sattler, architect of the innovative Herz Jesu Kirche, Munich.
