Transnational Perspectives on Artists' Lives Marleen Rensen, Christopher Wiley, 2020-10-06 This book demonstrates the significance of transnationality for studying and writing the lives of artists While painters musicians and writers have long been cast as symbols of their associated nations recent research is increasingly drawing attention to those aspects of their lives and works that resist or challenge the national framework The volume showcases different ways of treating transnationality in life writing by and about artists investigating how the transnational can offer intriguing new insights on artists who straddle different nations and cultures It further explores ways of adopting transnational perspectives in artists biographies in order to deal with experiences of cultural otherness or international influences and analyses cross cultural representations of artists in biography and biofiction Gathering together insights from biographers and scholars with expertise in literature music and the visual arts Transnational Perspectives on Artists Lives opens up rich avenues for researching transnationality in the cultural domain at large The Mirror and the Palette Jennifer Higgie, 2021-03-30 Reveals an until now hidden history of women's self-portraiture A gift that keeps on giving ALI SMITH NEW STATESMAN Books of the Year A fascinating survey Extraordinary DAILY MAIL A bewitching invigorating history OLIVIA LAING Grips from the opening pages FINANCIAL TIMES Important and brilliantly accessible VOGUE Until the twentieth century art history was in the main written by white men who tended to write about other white men The idea that women in the West have always made art was rarely cited as a possibility Yet they have and of course continue to do so often against tremendous odds from laws and religion to the pressures of family and public disapproval In THE MIRROR AND THE PALETTE Jennifer Higgie introduces us to a cross section of women artists who embody the fact that there is more than one way to understand our planet more than one way to live in it and more than one way to make art about it Spanning 500 years biography and cultural history intertwine in a narrative packed with tales of rebellion adventure revolution travel and tragedy enacted by women who turned their back on convention and lived lives of great resilience creativity and bravery This is a dazzlingly original and ambitious book by one of the most well respected art critics at work today
