Target--intensity Timothy Herzog,Kevin A. Baumert,Jonathan Pershing,2006 An analysis of GHG Intensity targets underlying indicators rationales real world applications and implementation issues Greenhouse gas intensity targets are policies that specify emissions reductions relative to productivity or economic output for instance tons CO2 million dollars GDP By contrast absolute emissions targets specify reductions measured in metric tons relative only to a historical baseline This report looks specifically at intensity targets and explores their underlying indicators rationales real world applications and implementation issues It finds that although intensity targets are often dismissed as being environmentally lax or deceptive they nonetheless could be useful policy instruments when properly used for furthering significant and real commitments to reducing greenhouse gases

The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and gripping novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
