The Ohio History Teachers' Journal, Vol. 20 UNKNOWN. AUTHOR, 2015-07-08 Excerpt from The Ohio History Teachers Journal Vol 20 March 1916 Issued in January March May and November The aim of the Ohio History Teachers Association is the improvement of the methods of the teaching of history and civics and the development of the spirit of cooperation among the teachers of these subjects in the state The best means of developing the interests of the organization and rendering the most service to the greatest number is through the publication of a bulletin According to present plans the Ohio State University will publish a bulletin controlled by a board of editors which is to be the official organ of the history teachers of Ohio The editors have decided that the interests entrusted to them will perhaps be best subserved by issuing four numbers a year namely in January March May and November one or two of these numbers to comprise papers presented before the annual meeting of the Association and the others to contain a full discussion of some one topic of special interest to readers of the bulletin As the Association held two meetings in 1915 the present number will be found to embody such papers as were available from both of those meetings It is expected that the next or May number will deal with the teaching of English history in our high schools The third or November number will probably contain the papers concerning the national aspects of Ohio history that were read at the meeting of October 1915 together with the program papers of the session to be held in October 1916 and it is hoped that the fourth number January 1917 may treat of the teaching of American history in the high schools Miss Alice M Rower of Cleveland the first secretary of the Association after studying carefully the proposal to issue a bulletin came to the conclusion that certain desirable ends might be thus attained About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Transatlantic Relations and the Great War explores the relations between the Danube Monarchy of Austria Hungary and the modern US democracy and how that relationship developed over decades until it ended in a final rupture As the First World War drew to a close in late 1918 the Mid European Union was created to fill the vacuum in Central and Eastern Europe as the old Danube Monarchy of Austria Hungary was falling apart One year before in December 1917 the United States had declared war on Austria Hungary and overnight huge masses of immigrants from the Habsburg Empire became enemy aliens in the US Offering a major deviation from traditional historiography this book explains how the countdown of mostly diplomatic events in that fatal year 1918 could have taken an alternative course In addition to providing a narrative account of Austrian Hungarian relations with the US in the years leading up to the First World War the author also demonstrates how an almost total ignorance of the affairs of the Dual Monarchy was to be found in the US and vice versa This book is a fascinating and important resource for students and scholars interested in modern European and US history diplomatic relations and war studies Publications of the Teaching Staff ,1929 The Phonographic Magazine ,1888 A
