American Newspaper Journalists on Film Johnny D. Boggs, 2022-11-25 When talking pictures first appeared in cinema theaters in the late 1920s films about newspaper journalists quickly became a Hollywood mainstay. These were a variety of responses from working reporters, editors and photographers. The newspaper film was a popular genre in the 1950s and famous films such as All the President's Men 1976 and Spotlight 2015 have depicted the power of the press. Journalists have also been portrayed in films that are not specifically about newspapers, appearing in noir films like Woman on the Run 1950, Westerns such as Fort Worth 1951, comedies like The Ghost and Mr. Chicken 1966, musicals like Wake Up and Live 1937 and historical epics like Lawrence of Arabia 1962. A film historian and former newspaper writer, the author investigates how accurately films have portrayed journalists across the decades. The book also details what journalists thought of the depictions at the time, contributing to brief histories and analyses for each film. Featured journalist archetypes include airy reporters, screaming editors, photographers, sportswriters and war journalists. Classics, misfires, Westerns, obscure treasures and films the press both adored and detested are all included in this comprehensive here.
