Murder Town, USA Yasser Arafat Payne, Brooklynn K. Hitchens, Darryl L. Chambers, 2023-07-14 Murder Town USA Homicide Structural Violence and Activism is a street ethnography that describes how fifteen men and women ages 21-48 formerly involved with the streets studied and did activism on gun violence in Wilmington, Delaware. This team examined how race, ethnicity, gender, poverty, white wealth, and small city size contributed to a street identity and especially the spread of gun violence. Drawing on the voices of the streets, this book project is in part a research-driven response to an infamous 2014 Newsweek article, "Murder Town USA" aka Wilmington, Delaware, which focused on how a small city's identity was forged by white wealth, gun violence, and Black poverty. "Murder Town USA" further argues that the voices most likely to perpetuate and be victimized by gun violence are what is missing most from discussions on gun violence. It is only through and with the streets that it is possible to fully understand and stop the violence in their neighborhoods.

Successful Web Retailing Bob Vereen, Dennis Stillwell, 2010-11. Most retailers are not taking full advantage of the opportunities the Internet provides them. Their web sites aren't kept up to date and are changed infrequently; their sites do not generate enough sales; they are not using links or social media effectively; and most have not employed a positive search engine strategy or embarked on an e-mail marketing program. This book is a how-to handbook that explains in simple terms what needs to be done and how to do it if retailers want to make their web sites a more effective advertisement for their stores and an improved communication platform. It also explains what retailers need to do if they wish to increase or begin making web sales. Web sites of a variety of retailers illustrate many of the techniques being employed by other merchants with web addresses so the sites can be explored more fully. The book's 14 chapters explain why retailers need a better web site and how they can be improved. Each self-standing chapter is a how-to manual including the following: How to Establish a Search Engine Strategy, Analyzing Web Statistics and using them, Are You Taking Advantage of Links, What You Should Know about Social Media, How to Use Social Media, What You Should Know about Blogs, How Mobile Computing is Changing Things, Will E-mail Marketing Work for You, Upgrading and Improving Your Current Web Site, How to Make More Sales from Your Site. The book includes many other web resources that can be accessed by readers who wish to learn more about any of the topics presented. Web site examples include those of a variety of retailers ranging from hardware stores to drug stores and apparel merchants plus a list of other web sites that readers can review based on summary descriptions of them. Bob Vereen, one of the authors, is a marketing and merchandising guru with 60 years experience in the hardware industry while Dennis Stillwell, the co-author, has been a pioneer and leader in Internet and web advertising developments. Together their experience blends practical retailing knowledge with web expertise all written for the average retailer not for the nerds of the world. Dennis Stillwell brings his vast experience in marketing and advertising to this book especially his marketing savvy using the Internet. He is considered one of the early pioneers in Internet advertising having been on the Internet in the early years before the creation of the Treatment of Dry Skin Syndrome Marie Lodén, Howard I. Maibach, 2012-04-26 Development of moisturizers is a scientific and artistic discipline where consumer insights are also needed. This new book bridges the gap between the moisturizers and the skin by covering all the essential information required to tailor the use of moisturizers to particular disorders and patients. Important aspects of skin biochemistry and barrier function are explained and the ingredients and treatment effects of moisturizers are explored in depth. Careful attention is paid to controversies including the role of certain moisturizers in inducing dryness, eczema, asthma and comedones. The information provided in this unique book will enable the reader to go beyond the traditional thinking regarding skin care. The novel insights offered will suggest the properties required for a new generation of moisturizing treatments that more effectively improve the quality of life. Gun Baby Gun Iain Overton, 2015-04-16 SHORTLISTED FOR THE CWA NON FICTION DAGGER A brilliantly researched journey capturing the gun's strangely accepted place in human life and far too often death. JON SNOW EVERY MINUTE OF EVERY DAY SOMEONE SOMEWHERE IS SHOT There are almost one billion guns across the globe today more than ever before. There are 12 billion bullets produced every year almost two bullets for every person on this earth. And as many as 500 000 people are killed by them every year worldwide. The gun's impact is long reaching and often hidden. And it doesn't just involve the dead, the wounded, the suicidal and the mourning. It involves us all. Gun Baby Gun takes the award winning investigative journalist Iain Overton on a shocking and eye opening journey to over 25 countries. Meeting people affected by guns from all walks of life, porn starlets who appear as snipers in XXX films, Zionist anti terror gun trainers, El Salvadoran gangland killers, he unearths some hard truths about the terrible realities of war and gun crime. Harrowing and sobering, it's a riveting expos that anyone with even the smallest interest in how the world really works will want to read.
