Come back before it gets dark. She's a warning to lecherous young men. Don't wander the streets late at night. A man's body is found viciously murdered behind a neighbourhood's 24 hour corner store, sending shockwaves through the tightknit community in this small town neighbourhood. All the victim's family and bystanders want is to make sense of this brutal crime and move on with their lives. But all seven year old Layla wants is a pet donkey. To her, a donkey is the epitome of freedom and being self sufficient to think for herself, go anywhere by herself and live an independent life. As the killings continue, Layla's world unravels. Rumours start to fly of supposed hoofprints and a woman with hair like black silk. As the ambiguous messages in lipstick and sweet smell of perfume cause the finger of blame to point towards the women, Layla herself grows into a woman. The kind of woman she has always dreamt of becoming. A woman with sharp instincts. A woman who cannot be tamed. This is a story of old world meets new of modernity and isolation as a community turns on its women in
