A Treatise on Moon Maps Francis J. Manasek, 2023-03-31 A Treatise on Moon Maps aims to contextualize Moon maps and to create a space for them in the history and philosophy of cartography Such a space has been wanting Although not a linear chronological history of lunar mapping this book is the most comprehensive and detailed examination of printed Moon maps derived from visual telescopic observation 1610 1910

making it a valuable resource Recognizing that not all Moon maps were made for the same reasons the maps are separated into several functional categories making it easier to explore their broader cultural and social contexts as well as treating them as discrete cultural artifacts with distinct voices A Treatise on Moon Maps will appeal to astronomers both professional and amateur as well as to historians Institutions and individual map collectors will find the breadth and depth of illustration with the correlative text particularly useful
