Morality Ethics And Gifted Minds:

Morality, Ethics, and Gifted Minds Don Ambrose, Tracy Cross, 2009-04-21 Morality Ethics and Gifted Minds explores much of the current wisdom on ethics and morality while developing new perspectives on the ethical dimensions of high ability. Prominent authors from diverse disciplines are brought together recognizing that no single discipline can capture the essence and entirety of nettlesome complex multidimensional moral issues. More specifically, the book explores new dimensions of ethics and morality, magnifies the importance of applying highly intelligent minds to ethical issues while developing ways to strengthen the ethical awareness of the creative and gifted, and brings diverse interdisciplinary perspectives to bear on these issues. Critical Thinking in Moral Development, 2024-12-09 This book is for anyone interested in these topics, whether they are veterans or relative newcomers to the field, because the editors have assembled a stellar group of seventeen international contributors. There are four sections devoted respectively to philosophical perspectives, developmental psychology, educational practices, and assessment. Each section consists of three initial chapters followed by a commentary that highlights notable themes and gives guidance for further inquiry. Along with the Introduction and Epilogue contributed by the editors Daniel Fasko and Frank Fair, the chapters develop themes such as the role of the ideas of Aristotle and Kant in shaping our moral development and educational practices. Here, readers will encounter informative discussions of, among other things, The 4Es of Virtuous Purpose, The Rational Construction of Morality, and Philosophy Goes to High School. Readers are also led to consider Measures of Moral Identity, The EQUIP Program, and Assessing Value Clarity and Moral Blueprints. The diversity of expertise and the international vantage points of the contributors make this book an informative overview for the expert and a useful introduction for the beginning student concerning the issues involved. Contributors are Jennifer Baker, Marvin W. Berkowitz, M. Neil Browne, Michael W. Creane, Juan P. Dabdoub, Frank Fair, Daniel Fasko, Jr., John C. Gibbs, David Kaspar, J. n. Knap, k. Martina Kosturkov, Shane McLoughlin, Chad Miller, Benjamin Mitchell Yellin, David Moshman, G. Felicitas Munzel, Renee B. Patrick, Timothy S. Reilly, and Di You. Giftedness 101 Linda Silverman, 2012-12-12 In my estimation, Giftedness 101 ranks high among authoritative texts devoted to this particular population of children. It not only offers thorough experience and knowledge-based insights to those who are already or are contemplating serving the social/emotional needs of these children in the future, but also those who profess to educate future teachers, those who would venture out into classrooms charged with the teaching, and many others besides. It should be required reading for politicians, especially those who shape educational policy. Gifted and Talented International Linda Silverman is an articulate, insightful, authoritative, and extremely gifted international expert in the assessment of giftedness. She has created a gem with Giftedness 101. The fields of psychology and education should welcome this vibrant book with open arms. Alan S. Kaufman, PhD, Yale Child Study Center, School of Medicine. This is a really terrific book. I'm really impressed at how much information has been packed into it, how accessible it is without talking down to the audience, and how well the author has parsed the many key issues in the world of giftedness Parents and mental health professionals will find this book incredibly useful I look forward to sharing it far and wide I think it is a book that was badly needed and will really fill a niche Corin Goodwin CEO describes comprehensive assessment of the gifted provides support for the twice exceptional and focuses on the complex inner world of the gifted The book defines giftedness as a psychological reality with powerful ramifications throughout the lifespan Giftedness 101 will be a valuable eye opening resource for psychologists educators and other professionals who work with the gifted as well as gifted individuals and their families Key Features Provides a concise accessible overview of one of the most important and challenging topics in psychology and education Examines the concept of giftedness across the lifespan Covers both the intellectual assessment and development of gifted individuals as well as the psychological well being issues of this population Written by a prominent expert in the field of the psychology of giftedness

Handbook for Counselors Serving Students With Gifts and Talents Tracy L. Cross, Jennifer Riedl Cross, 2021-09-30 The second edition of Handbook for Counselors Serving Students With Gifts and Talents provides the definitive overview of research on the general knowledge that has been amassed regarding the psychology of gifted students This book Introduces the reader to the varied conceptions of giftedness Covers issues specific to gifted children and various intervention methods Describes programs designed to fulfill the need these children have for challenge Is updated and expanded addressing contemporary issues Reflects the latest research on giftedness With chapters authored by leading experts in the field Handbook for Counselors Serving Students With Gifts and Talents is a resource professionals can turn to for answers to a wide variety of questions about gifted children The Palgrave Handbook of Transformational Giftedness for Education Robert J Sternberg, Don Ambrose, Sareh Karami, 2022-04-23 This handbook examines what education would look like if it prepared gifted students to transform the world to make it a better place for all not just for those who receive extra resources from schools in return for being labeled as gifted The editors explore how transformationally gifted people can seek to make the world a better and more just place they try to make a positive meaningful and possibly enduring contribution to changing things in the world that are not working They do not view giftedness merely as a transaction whereby in exchange for being labeled as gifted they accrue benefits to themselves such as a more prestigious education more income or residence in a more exclusive community The overarching aim of this book is to present conceptions of what identification and instruction of the gifted would look like if the focus of gifted education was transformational rather than transactional What if gifted education did not focus so much on acceleration vs enrichment or pull out versus in class integration but rather on how to be gifted in giving back in using one's gifts to create a better world Gifted Joe Khatena, 1992 Social and Emotional Learning in Australia and the Asia-Pacific Erica Frydenberg, Andrew J. Martin, Rebecca J. Collie, 2017-03-07 Around the globe there is a growing awareness of the importance of addressing students social and emotional development and wellbeing during schooling Although the bulk of the work in this area has been conducted in North America and Europe there is now a burgeoning interest in this topic in Australia and the wider Asia Pacific This book is the first ever to provide a timely and important collection of diverse perspectives on and approaches to social and emotional learning in the Australian and Asia Pacific context Adopting a broad view of social and emotional learning the book explores positive psychology belonging teachers professional development pre service training and post initial training in Australia and in neighbouring communities such as China Hong Kong Korea Singapore New Zealand Fiji and other Pacific nations Frydenberg Martin and Collie have provided an incredible service by bringing together in a single well planned scholarly volume an incredible and well balanced group of senior and early career cutting edge researchers from Australia Asia and the Asia Pacific area tackling approaches and key issues of social and emotional learning Their much needed volume links research on key factors such as differing perspectives measurement issues the identification of at risk children teachers social and emotional development and these and other across the cultures of an increasingly vibrant and developing geographic region It is indeed encouraging to gain the sense of depth and breadth of ongoing research that the volume gives John Roodenburg PhD FAPS MCEDP MCCOUNSP Monash University Melbourne Social and Emotional Learning is understood to be a crucial part of the school curriculum This book covers the field with a refreshing focus on work being done in Australia and in neighbouring countries For school psychologists the book helps us to understand how SEL can help at every level from working with individuals small groups whole classes or with the entire school Our work with vulnerable students individually or in small groups is always more effective when embedded in the broader context of Social and Emotional Learning Paul Bertoia FAPS MCEDP Senior School Psychologist This collected volume of researchers from Australia and the Asia Pacific provides a thorough review of important educational social and emotional development issues for practitioners and researchers around the world Readers will greatly benefit from the breadth and depth of treatment in each of the topics covered Kit Tai Hau PhD Choh Ming Li Professor of Educational Psychology The Chinese University of Hong Kong

Psychology of Thinking David A. Contreras, 2010 Psychology has long influenced our thinking about teaching and learning However earlier influences of psychology on education were more about not thinking than what we now consider to be the thinking processes necessary for life and work in the 21st century The narrow boundaries of behaviourism have given way to the complexities of critical thinking creativity analysis connection making and the self management skills of decision making planning and self evaluation This book focuses on raising the awareness of scientists and other readers to a form of thinking called design thinking as well as major findings regarding the affective motivational and cognitive consequences of insurmountable obstacles and their impact on the thinking process Great Thoughts from Master Minds ,1885 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2009 The Index ,1886 Ethics and Religion ,1900 Exceptional Child Education Resources ,1999 The Index ... Francis Ellington Abbot, William James Potter, Benjamin Franklin Underwood, 1875 Current Index to Journals in Education ,1998-04 Social Forces ,1926
