Transnational Women's Fiction Susan

Strehle,2008-04 Drawing together feminist and postcolonial theories Susan Strehle links domestic practices and imperial projects She advances a new view of home and homeland as intertwined hierarchical spaces exploiting people of unprivileged gender race class religion and ethnicity Close readings of the six novels engage transnational women s fiction that unsettles home and dispels the sentimental narrative of homeland In crossing traditional disciplinary boundaries this book attempts to unsettle and renew

BOOK JACKET Adventures of the Spirit Phyllis Sternberg Perrakis,2007 In Adventures of the Spirit

Phyllis Sternberg Perrakis brings together eleven American and Canadian literary gerontologists to examine a new kind of adventure for the older woman in literature This volume of critical essays analyzes recent works by contemporary women writers whose characters midlife and later life changes are mapped in their narratives Rather than focusing on the painful losses undergone by women of a certain age recent narratives explore a new kind of adventure of aging one that is spiritual in nature enabling new ways of being and becoming but open ended and capable of great variation in practice In particular these journeys of the spirit focus on the retrospective movement undergone by a midlife or older woman as she is led by inner or outer forces to assess where she has come from and decipher a shape or pattern to her journey These journeys do not leave the body behind as they map new spiritual territory Rather they honor spirit s embrace of the natural world and relationships as well as its aspirations for evolving development and eternal existence The essays in Adventures of the Spirit employ a wide variety of critical lenses to chart these adventures including archetypal Sufi post colonial and feminist analysis archival research aboriginal life writing and trauma theory These studies bring a new understanding to women s adventure of age in both literary texts and in life
