The world has changed And we feel it in our homes schools and congregations We can hardly remember a time when we didn t feel the influence of that back pocket device The average social media user spends about two and a half hours a day using social media That s more than enough time to shape our values and desires Pastors teachers and parents feel their influence slipping away We re seeing increased loneliness disunity and self absorption But where do we go from here In The Wolf in Their Pockets Internet expert Chris Martin examines the many ways we are being changed by social media With a biblically informed voice Martin both exposes the ways the Internet is distorting our life in Christ and shows us how to faithfully respond Martin teaches us how to care for people who are obsessed with followers views and likes and how to love those whose online influences have filled them with cynicism and contempt Martin looks at how the social Internet is changing how we understand sex and beauty what to do about the epidemic levels of anxiety and how to redirect our hearts to worship Jesus Christ Shepherding and leading people has never been easy but the social Internet has brought new challenges We need the miraculous work of the Holy Spirit and a powerful prayer life Martin provides the biblical wisdom direction and hope necessary to combat The Wolf in Their Pockets The Shaadi Set-Up Lillie Vale, 2021-09-07 In this witty and heartfelt rom com debut for fans of Jasmine Guillory Emily Henry and Tessa Bailey an Indian American woman signs herself and her boyfriend up for a matchmaking site to prove they're a perfect match only to be paired with her ex instead. High school sweethearts Rita Chitniss and Milan Rao were the golden couple until the day he broke her heart. Now six years later, Rita has turned her passion for furniture restoration into a career and has an almost perfect boyfriend Neil. The last thing she needs is for Milan to re-enter her life, but that's exactly what happens when her mother, an unfailing believer in second chances, sets them up. Milan is just as charming, cocky, and confident as he was back in school. Only this time he actually needs her business expertise, not her heart, to flip a hard-to-sell house for his realty agency. While Rita begrudgingly agrees to help, she's not taking any risks. To prove she's definitely over him, she signs herself and Neil up on MyShaadi.com, a Desi matchmaking site famous for its success stories and trustworthy enough to convince everyone that she and Neil are the new and improved couple. Instead, she's shocked when MyShaadi's perfect match for her isn't Neil; it's Milan. Ignoring the website and her mother is one thing, but ignoring Milan proves much more difficult, especially when she promises to help him renovate the beach house of her dreams. And as the two of them dive deeper into work and their pasts, Rita begins to wonder if maybe her match wasn't so wrong after all.

Is She Really Going Out With Him? Sophie Cousens, 2025-04-10 From the New York Times bestselling author of This Time Next Year, a hilarious love story about a disillusioned divorcee who agrees to let her children play matchmaker. Columnist Anna Appleby has left her love life behind after a painful divorce. Who needs a man when she has two kids, a cat, and uncontested control of the TV remote? Besides, she'd rather be single than subject herself to the hell of online dating. But her office rival is vying for her column, and no column means no stable source of income. So in a desperate attempt to keep her job, Anna finds herself pitching a unique angle: seven dates, all found offline, chosen by her children. From awkward encounters to unexpected connections, Anna gamely begins to put herself out there, asking out waiters, the mailman, even her celebrity crush. But when a
