A Comprehensive Guide to Attention Deficit Disorder in Adults Kathleen G. Nadeau, 1995 The assessment and differential diagnosis of ADD is examined from the perspectives of a variety of specialists in the field. This includes an exploration of the interrelationships between attention deficit disorder and other neurodevelopmental disabilities that may interact with ADD to affect cognitive functioning and an examination of the connections between ADD and a host of psychiatric conditions. Also covered is the process of differential diagnosis from a neurological perspective which will help the non-medically trained clinician to better determine when a complete neurological evaluation seems warranted in the assessment process. Authors examine ADD with and without hyperactivity and describe a wide range of assessment tools that can be useful in developing a full diagnostic picture of different conditions that must be addressed in treating adults with the disorder. Greater

Expectations: Enabling Achievement for Disadvantaged Students Ian Warwick, Alex Crossman, 2024-02-23 How can greater expectations lead to greater outcomes for schools and the students they teach? The London Academy of Excellence LAE Newham is one of the leading sixth form schools in the UK. The LAE's mission is to combat disadvantage by providing ambitious young people from lower income homes with an education on a par with the best available in the independent sector. In its first decade the LAE sent over 1 300 students to Russell Group universities over 200 to medical schools and more than 150 to Oxford or Cambridge. Most of those students were the first in their family to attend a university. The authors sift through the school's practices to reveal universal concepts and ideas that school leaders in any context can consider for their own schools. These ideas include Understanding the curriculum as a source of social mobility, Planning for high quality destinations from first contact with prospective students, Exploring challenge strategies to achieve academic excellence across subjects. The book culminates in a list of strategies that can drive greater expectations in any school. Alex Crossman is Headteacher and Ian Warwick is Chair of the Education Committee at the London Academy of Excellence. Connecting Ideas, Cultures, and Communities
