Illustrated by Numerous Engravings John Kitto,1866 Armenian and Jewish Experience between Expulsion and Destruction Sarah M. Ross,Regina Randhofer,2021-11-22 Jews and Armenians are often perceived as peoples with similar tragic historical experiences Not only were both groups forced into statelessness and a life outside their homelands for centuries in the 20th century in the shadow of war they were threatened with collective annihilation Thus far academic approaches to these two classical diasporas have been quite different Moreover Armenian and Jewish questions posed during the 19th and 20th centuries have usually been treated separately The conference We Will Live After Babylon that took place in Hanover in February 2019 addressed this gap in research and was one of the first initiatives to deal directly with Jewish and Armenian historical experiences between expulsion exile and annihilation in a comparative framework The contributions in this volume take on multidisciplinary approaches relating to the conference s central themes diaspora minority issues and genocide Speaking in Tongues: A Critical Historical Examination, Volume 2 Philip E.

Blosser,Charles A. Sullivan,2023-08-21 In three carefully researched volumes this ground breaking study examines the gift of tongues through two thousand years of church history Starting in the present and working back in time these volumes consider 1 the modern redefinition of tongues as a private prayer language 2 the church s perennial understanding of tongues as ordinary human languages and 3 the Corinthian tongues which in light of Jewish liturgical tradition turn out to have been a Semitic liturgical language requiring bilingual interpreters This second volume tracks the perception and practice of tongues back through the first eighteen hundred years of church history demonstrating that tongue speaking was always active but puzzlingly different from today s glossolalia From Pope Benedict XIV s detailed treatise in the 1700s it works back through long forgotten scholastic and patristic debates to the earliest Christian writers such as Irenaeus No other resource on the subject approaches the depth and scope of the present volume
