One Moment In Time Moment Of Truth:

Crosslinguistic Views on Tense, Aspect and Modality Bart Hollebrandse, Angeliek van Hout, Co Vet, 2005 This Cahiers Chronos volume reports on new and ongoing research on tense aspect and modality in which a variety of languages has been gathered The languages discussed by the authors include in alphabetical order Brazilian Portuguese Chinese Dutch English French German Greek Italian Japanese Polish Russian and Spanish The articles form a selection of the papers presented at the 5th Chronos Conference that took place at the University of Groningen the Netherlands in June 2002 We have categorized the papers into three sections Tense Aspect and Modality Obviously this ordering is somewhat arbitrary given that some of the papers cross these rather rigid boundaries as they discuss the interplay of tense and aspect or tense and modality This book is of interest for scholars in the field of semantics logic syntax and comparative linguistics A

Cunningham Horace Walpole, 1891 Human Thought Joseph Mendola, 1997-02-28 Mendola spends little time distinguishing human thought from horse sense and any possible ruminations of other creatures Nor does he acknowledge an distinction between conscious experience and thought content He develops a theory of content for human thought that delineates the things human can think constructs an account of the realization of such thought explains how thoughts with such a range of context might be constituted and how there might be people with such thoughts and argues that no coherent and humanly conceivable account of the realization of our thought is plausible because we cannot plausibly explain our experience He concludes that how we think we think what we think is not how we do in fact think we think Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR *The Acts & Proceedings of the ...
