Civil Society, Peacebuilding, and Economic Assistance in Northern Ireland Sean Byrne,2023-07-07 This book examines the role of local peacebuilders in Northern Ireland and some of the challenges they face The work explores the perspective and experiences of local peacebuilders in Northern Ireland and the border counties of the Republic of Ireland about their analysis and critique of liberal peacebuilding their hopes and concerns and how they are aligned with external funders It features interviews with a plethora of civil society organization workers funding agency community development officers and civil servants adjudicating the International Fund for Ireland and the European Union Peace and Reconciliation Fund which highlight the participants local wisdom practices and values regarding creating sustainable livelihoods peacebuilding insights receiving recognition for their work dissonance with internal and external actors conflict transformation efforts and engagement with partners and allies The rich empirical qualitative exploratory case study situated in post peace accord Northern Ireland and the border counties of the Republic of Ireland speaks to the respondents ideas about the creation delivery and efficacy of peacebuilding funded initiatives as well as their hopes and dreams for the future In exploring this central argument the work offers an overarching structure in which to analyze the theory and praxis of conflict and peacebuilding in Northern Ireland More generally it offers an important contribution to our understanding of local peacebuilders and how economic assistance impacts on a divided society This book will be of much interest to students of peacebuilding conflict resolution sociology and British and Irish politics Handbook on Intervention and Statebuilding Nicolas Lemay-Hébert,2019-12-27 This innovative Handbook offers a new perspective on the cutting edge conceptual advances that have shaped and continue to shape the field of intervention and statebuilding

Resilience in EU and International Institutions Elena Korosteleva,Trine Flockhart,2020-12-17 This book explores the concept and practice of resilience that has generated much debate among both scholars and practitioners The contributions propose a new understanding of resilience both as a quality and a way of thinking taking it to the level of the person and the local to argue that a more sustainable way to govern the world today is bottom up and inside out While carrying a seemingly unifying message of self reliance adaptation and survival in the face of adversity resilience curiously continues to appear as all things to all people making it hard for the EU and international institutions to make full use of its arresting potential Engendering resilience today in the highly volatile and uncertain world hit by crises pandemic and diminishing control becomes a priority as never before This book develops a more comprehensive view of resilience by looking at it both as a quality of the system and a way of thinking inherent to the local that cannot be engineered from the outside It is argued in this volume that in some cases the level of the person especially the person s sense of what constitutes a good life may be the most appropriate focus for understanding change and strategic adaptation in response to it This understanding widens the scope of discussion from what makes an entity system or person more adaptable to how one can best govern today to establish a stable equilibrium between the global and the local the external and the internal and become more responsive to the challenges and changes of today s highly uncertain world The chapters in this book were originally published in the journal Contemporary Security Policy

Communication in Peacebuilding Stefanie Pukallus,2021-11-17 This book is concerned with the role that communication understood as including both the factual and fictional mass media as well as the performative and visual arts can play in post civil war peacebuilding It engages with questions of how a society can move from the civil war conditions of discursive dehumanisation to peaceful cooperation in post civil war settings and how peacebuilders can help communities utilise the transformative capacity of communication to encourage the reimagining of and engagement with former enemies as co citizens Ultimately civil and peaceful cooperation depends on the observance of discursive civility and the building of safe discursive spaces in which civil engagement between different groups of society including former combatants and survivors can safely take place This book argues that understanding communicative peacebuilding in this way is fundamental to the achievement of self sustainable everyday peace

International Peacebuilding and Local Resistance Roger Mac Ginty,2011-05-26 Using the case studies of Afghanistan Iraq Bosnia Lebanon and Northern Ireland this book dissects internationally supported peace interventions Looking at issues of security statebuilding civil society and economic and constitutional reform it proposes using the concept of hybridity to understand the dynamics of societies in transition

International Peacebuilding and Local Resistance Roger Mac

Ginty,2011-05-26 Using the case studies of Afghanistan Iraq Bosnia Lebanon and Northern Ireland this book dissects internationally supported peace interventions Looking at issues of security statebuilding civil society and economic and constitutional reform it proposes using the concept of hybridity to understand the dynamics of societies in transition

Civilizing Contention Rana B. Khoury,2025-11-15 In Civilizing Contention Rana B Khoury asserts that to understand civilian and refugee activism in war we must regard the international actors and organizations that enter the scene to help When these organizations respond to crises they work with local actors In so doing they facilitate the activists participation in something like a civil society even in the depths of war Yet as aid imposes its structures and routines it also leaves activists unprotected from the violence of war and its aftermaths Khoury pursues these ideas through analysis of Syria s war that emerged from the 2011 Arab Uprisings She traces the afterlife of a social movement that did not merely take up arms or capitulate to repression Interviews with Syrian activists and international aid workers in Jordan Turkey and Lebanon provide insight into action among actors in the war while original social media data offers additional evidence Civilizing Contention deepens knowledge of civilian and refugee agency by explaining how ordinary people act in extraordinary ways in a world structured by powerful forces

Civil-Military Relations and Global Security Governance Cornelia Baciu,2021-03-01 This book investigates the relationship between international security governance democratic civil military relations and the relevance of strategy as well as of absolute and relative gains in norms formation in hybrid orders Highlighting caveats of the legacy of Huntington s paradigm of military professionalism the book applies a robust methodology and data collected in four sample regions in Pakistan It gauges the effects of international and local actors support in the Security Sector Reform domain and examines instances of civil military interactions and military transition The book also analyses determinants and strategies that can influence them to demonstrate the impact of global governance in norms diffusion as well as of absolute and relative utility gains and incentives in normative change The author generates a new theory pertaining to international organisations and actors as determinants of transformation processes and consequently sheds new light on the issue of global security governance especially its impact on civil military relations and democratisation in hybrid orders The book will be of interest to scholars and practitioners in the field of global governance civil military relations grand strategy and foreign policy as well as Asian politics South Asian studies peace security and strategic studies International Relations and political science in more general

The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2005 Peacebuilding, Conflict and Community Development John Eversley,Sinéad Gormally,Avila Kilmurray,2022-11-28 This trailblazing book gives practical examples from the Global North and Global South on communities alleviating conflict and enabling transformation in divided societies

The Interaction Between Local and International Peacebuilding Actors Sara Hellmüller,2017-12-22 This book helps to better understand how the interaction between local and international peacebuilding actors influences the outcomes of their programs Based on the case study of Ituri in the Democratic Republic of Congo it analyses the relationships between local and international peacebuilding actors over the long term and assesses ways to overcome the obstacles to more cooperative partnerships Focusing on perceptions the book nuances existing definitions of war peacebuilding and peace and allows for a more comprehensive understanding of conflict contexts Thereby it contributes to the literature on peacebuilding effectiveness and makes concrete suggestions for translating these findings into practice Beyond Liberal Peacebuilding Elisa Randazzo,2017-06-14 This book examines the logic behind the shifts and paradigm changes within the scholarship on peacebuilding In particular the book is concerned with examining if and how these shifts have significantly altered how we think about peacebuilding beyond the liberal peacebuilding paradigm To do so the book engages with the logic of critique that has led to the emergence of different theoretical approaches to peacebuilding from hands on institutionalisation to the local turn It uses the case of Kosovo to understand how a lessons learnt approach facilitated the shift towards more invasive and intrusive forms of peacebuilding first However it is also crucial to understanding the recent local turn as the rise of local ownership discourses in Kosovo is fundamentally tied to the critiques of extensive international missions and the associated resistance and marginalisation of local agency The book examines the implications of the framing of everyday agency in order to assess the extent to which these bottom up approaches have been able to bypass the problems attributed to the liberal peace approach It argues that despite its critical and radical intentions the local turn retains certain foundational modernist and positivist qualities that have so far characterised the very mainstream approaches these critiques claim to transcend This book will be of much interest to students of peacebuilding statebuilding peace and conflict studies security studies and International Relations in general

A Requiem for Peacebuilding? Jorg Kustermans,Tom Sauer,Barbara Segaert,2020-12-01 This book assesses the claim that peacebuilding is a moribund international practice Its contributors trace the origins of peacebuilding bring back to memory its moments of triumph and reflect on the reports of its decline The story of peacebuilding parallels the broader story of liberalism's rise and fall in world politics including the attempt to remedy an ailing patient by administering a magic medicine the local turn Its contributors further write about what may come after peacebuilding as we still know it They describe more locally rooted attempts at building peace and how they operate in the shadows of and in an ambiguous relationship with governmental and international peacebuilders The book finally suggests that reports of the pending death of peacebuilding are probably premature Peacebuilding is a resilient international practice apt to adjust itself to a changing environment and too important a source of legitimacy for those that wield power Local Legitimacy and International Peace Intervention Oliver P. Richmond,2020-07-31 Furthering the understanding of the legitimate authority in internationally led peace and state building interventions This study focuses on understanding the complexities of legitimate authority in internationally led peace and statebuilding interventions Innovative theoretical approach engaging with local and contextual forms of legitimacy in peacebuilding contexts Introduces nuanced understandings of the concept of legitimacy Based on wide ranging fieldwork and twelve case studies Broader lessons for IR and for policy makersIncludes local authors This edited volume focuses on disentangling the interplay of local peacebuilding processes and international policy via comparative theoretical and empirical work on the question of legitimacy and authority Using a number of conflict affected regions as case studies including Kosovo Iraq Bosnia Herzegovina and Sudan the book incorporates the expertise of a range of international scholars in order to understand the dynamics of local peacebuilding the construction of legitimate authority and its interplay with internationally led peace and state building interventions The commissioned chapters advance our understanding of local legitimacy sustainable international engagement and the hybrid forms of authority they produce Legitimacy in Peacebuilding Franziska Zanker,2018 The book offers a critical analysis of legitimacy in peacebuilding with a focus on peace negotiations and civil society participation in particular The aim of this book is to unpack the meaning of legitimacy for the population in peacebuilding processes and the relationship this has with civil society involvement There is a growing consensus for addressing local concerns in peacebuilding with the aim of ensuring local ownership Moreover scholars have noted a relationship between civil society inclusion in peace negotiations and legitimacy Yet the very idea of legitimacy remains a black box Using data from original empirical fieldwork including over 100 semi structured interviews and 12 focus group discussions the book focuses on two case studies of negotiations that respectively ended a long civil war in Liberia in 2003 and ended the post election violence in Kenya in 2008 It argues that civil society involvement is conceptually insufficient to show a multidimensional understanding of legitimacy Instead the book shows a complex picture of legitimate peace negotiations based on outcome and participation based characteristics with the involvement of both guarantors of legitimacy and a more general civic agency which includes the general population Through forms of participative communication the passive audience become active stakeholders in the construction of legitimacy This has repercussions for how we think about civil society and peacebuilding more generally This book will be of much interest to students of peacebuilding conflict resolution security studies and IR in general

Peacebuilding in Crisis Tobias Debiel,Thomas

Held, Ulrich Schneckener,2015-06-30 The 1990s saw a constant increase in international peace missions predominantly led by the United Nations whose mandates were more and more extended to implement societal and political transformations in post conflict societies However in many cases these missions did not meet the high expectations and did not acquire a sufficient legitimacy on the local level Written by leading experts in the field this edited volume brings together liberal and post liberal approaches to peacebuilding Besides challenging dominant peacebuilding paradigms the book scrutinizes how far key concepts of post liberal peacebuilding offer sound categories and new perspectives to reframe peacebuilding research It thus moves beyond the liberal post liberal divide and systematically integrates further perspectives paving the way for a new era in peacebuilding research which is theory guided but also substantiated in the empirical analysis of peacebuilding practices This book will be essential reading for postgraduate students and scholar practitioners working in the field of peacebuilding By embedding the subject area into different research perspectives the book will also be relevant for scholars who come from related backgrounds such as democracy promotion transitional justice statebuilding conflict and development research and international relations in general Deferring Peace in International Statebuilding Pol

Bargués-Pedreny, 2018-05-15 This book explores the last 25 years of international peacebuilding and recasts them as a growing crisis of confidence in universal ideas of peacebuilding and self government Since current peacebuilding interventions are abandoning domineering top down and linear methodologies and experimenting with context sensitive self reflexive and locally driven strategies the book makes two suggestions The first is that international policymakers are embracing some of the critiques of liberal peace For more than a decade scholarly critiques have pointed out the need to focus on everyday dynamics and local initiatives and resistances to liberal peace in order to enable hybrid and long term practice based strategies of peacebuilding Now the distance between the policy discourse and critical frameworks has narrowed The second suggestion is that in stepping away from liberal peace a transvaluation of peacebuilding values is occurring Critiques are beginning to accept and valorise that international interventions will continuously fail to produce sensitive results The earlier frustrations with unexpected setbacks errors or contingencies are ebbing away Instead critiques normalise the failure to promote stability and peace This book will be of much interest to students of peacebuilding international intervention conflict resolution international organisations and security studies in general Alternative and Bottom-up Peace Indicators Roger Mac Ginty, 2014-08 This work investigates alternative and bottom up ways of assessing the progress with peace initiatives Rather than top down assessment methods this book is interested in people centric and bottom up ways of monitoring change These bottom up and alternative indicators are likely to have more resonance with the people who actually live in the conflict affected zone This bookw as published as a special issue of the Journal of Intervention and Statebuilding
