Read the short passage and answer the questions.

The Dog and the Shadow

It happened that a Dog had got a piece of meat and was carrying it home in his mouth to eat it in peace. Now on his way home, he had to cross a plank lying across a running brook. As he crossed, he looked down and saw his own shadow reflected in the water beneath. Thinking it was another dog with another piece of meat, he made up his mind to have that also. So he made a snap at the shadow in the water, but as he opened his mouth the piece of meat fell out, dropped into the water and was never seen more.

Reading Assessment to Promote Equitable Learning Laurie Elish-Piper, Mona W. Matthews, Victoria J. Risko, Victoria Risko, 2022-09-05 Many standard reading assessment approaches fail to capture the strengths and needs of students from diverse sociocultural linguistic and academic backgrounds From expert authors this book guides educators in planning and conducting meaningful equitable assessments that empower K 5 teachers and students inform responsive instruction and help to guard against bias The book s holistic view of reading encompasses areas from text comprehension and constrained skills to building trusting relationships and promoting students agency Twenty eight assessment strategies are explained in step by step detail including helpful implementation examples and 32 reproducible forms that teachers can download and print in a convenient 8 1 2 x 11 size      Using Discussion to Promote Reading Comprehension Donna E.

Alvermann, Deborah R. Dillon, David G. O'Brien, 1987 Drawing from observations of discussion in 24 different classrooms this book will provide preservice and inservice teachers at the middle and school levels with the motivation and knowledge to use discussion to foster student comprehension of content area text assignments The first chapter examines the distinctions between discussion and recitation and redefines major issues related to content area discussion in light of recent research and school reform reports The second chapter establishes a basis for the premise that discussion is important to the development of reading comprehension illustrating those skills that enrich or refine students understanding of text The third chapter uses portions of transcripts from videotaped content class discussions to illustrate how classroom context influences discussion practices Alternatives to teacher dominated discussions are described and guidelines are provided for establishing the rights and responsibilities of critical readers The fourth chapter demonstrates how to plan for classroom discussion of assigned material describing five aspects of the planning process The fifth chapter presents discussion strategies that help students master the content examine more than one side of the issue and evaluate alternative solutions to a text based problem while the sixth chapter analyzes one content area teacher s implementation of a preplanned discussion Finally the seventh chapter describes two procedures for informally evaluating classroom discussion used to promote reading comprehension References follow each chapter HTH      Police Promotion Course Joseph A.
