Language Learning Online: Towards Best Practice

Uschi Felix,2026-02-02 This important and accessible book identifies the key elements in the quest for best practice in online language teaching The authors all of them international experts who have made significant contributions to the debate about how to exploit the new technologies consider online language teaching from three crucial perspectives design tools and pedagogy Their recommendations are such that they can actually be realised in spite of the limitations of today s educational environments The book demonstrates that the new technologies offer far greater potential for authentic encounters and constructivist learning than even the best classroom simulations that automated exercise and feedback structures can be individualised and meaningful and that if we have to teach fully by distance these ventures no longer need to represent impoverished versions of live classes but can engender a strong sense of community To achieve this we need to understand what elements constitute good design both in technical and pedagogical terms to think seriously about providing the best feedback possible and to have the courage to take the risks associated with letting go of traditional learner teacher relationships

Secured Transactions Law in Asia Louise Gullifer, Dora Neo, 2021-05-20 This collection of essays offers a unique insight and overview of the secured transactions law in many of the most important countries in Asia as well as reflections on the need for benefits of and challenges for reform in this area of the law. The book provides a mixture of general reflections on the history, successes, and challenges of secured transaction law reform and critical discussion of the law in a number of Asian countries. In some of the countries the law has already been reformed or reform is under way and here the reforms are considered critically with recommendations for future work. In other countries the law is not yet reformed and the existing law is analysed so as to determine what reform is desirable and whether it is likely to take place. First this book will enable those engaging with the law in Asia to understand better the contours of the law in both civil and common law jurisdictions. Second it provides analytical insights into why secured transactions law reform happens or does not happen, the different methods by which reform takes place, the benefits of reform and the difficulties that need to be overcome for successful reform. Third it discusses the need for reform where none has yet taken place and critically assesses the reforms which have already been enacted or are being considered. In addition to providing a forum for discussion in relation to the countries in question this book is also a timely contribution to the wider debate on secured transactions law reform which is taking place around the world.

American Book Publishing Record, 2003 Making Profits,

Protecting Our Planet, 2005 This book identifies a range of market and social forces driving the private sector toward more responsible environmental stewardship. It shows the need for governments, the private sector, and communities to adjust their relations and argues for enhanced enforcement of environmental regulations by governments even as they reach out to the private sector for stronger collaboration in environmental protection.
