Crack an Egg

Crack an egg.
Stir the butter.
Break the yolk.
Make it flutter.
Stoke the heat.
Hear it sizzle.
Shake the salt,
just a drizzle...

Children's Literature in the Classroom Matthew D. Zbaracki, 2023-12-06 Children's literature is a powerful resource that can inspire a young reader's lifetime love of reading but how can you ensure that your literacy teaching uses this rich creative world to its fullest? This book gives pre-service primary teachers an in-depth guide to each major type of children's book, examining the form, structure, and approach of each. From fairy tales and non-fiction to picture books and digital texts, learn what qualities underpin outstanding children's literature and how you can use this to inspire rewarding learning experiences in your classroom. Key features: Each chapter is full of key book recommendations to help you select excellent age-appropriate texts for your learners. An international focus across English language publishing covering key books from Australian, US and UK authors. A special focus on Australian indigenous children's literature. Busting popular myths about children's literature to give you a deeper understanding of the form. Evaluation criteria for every genre helping you to recognise the qualities of high-quality books. This is essential reading for anyone training to teach in primary schools and qualified teachers looking to improve their professional knowledge. Matthew Zbaracki is State Head of Victoria in the National School of Education at ACU Melbourne.

Poetry in the Elementary School Virginia Witucke, 1970 Through the Eyes of a Child Donna E. Norton, Saundra E. Norton, Amy A. McClure, 2003 In its seventh edition, Through the Eyes of a Child: An Introduction to Children's Literature continues to be a visually stunning, theoretically sound, comprehensive overview of children's literature. It focuses squarely on selecting and evaluating quality literature to share with children and guiding them to appreciate and respond to that literature. This edition features multicultural literature and young adult literature in every chapter, expanded coverage of biographies and informational books, and over 100 new children's titles referenced throughout. A children's literature CD-ROM accompanies the book and contains bibliographic information for thousands of titles, making it even easier to share quality literature with children and adolescents.

Teaching Children to Read Douglas Ray Reutzel, Robert B. Cooter, 2004 For Elementary Reading Methods courses. This comprehensive and balanced look at literacy practice has long been one of the most popular reading methods texts available. The text begins by introducing seven principles for comprehensive reading instruction and then explains the theoretical foundations of teaching reading. Part I builds on those foundations with specific methods in Part II and then in Part III it describes how to create a variety of learning centers and how to plan developmentally appropriate reading curriculum for students in both K-3 and 4-8 classrooms. Chapters 12 and 13 provide a continuum of knowledge by describing classroom organization and curriculum for grades 4 6 and 6 8      Developing Learning Skills Through Children's Literature Mildred Laughlin,Letty S. Watt,1986 This book suggests ideas for sharing literature that may be utilized in developing a scope and sequence of literature experiences for children in grades K 5 For primary grades K 2 the activities are primarily arranged through sharing the works of a particular author or illustrator Through this deliberate exploration the child begins to know that person as a friend S he is excited about new books by that same author or illustrator and discusses books on a level not often achieved if authors are approached only haphazardly Those included represent a variety of classic and current authors and illustrators too good to miss who have made a particular contribution to literature for young people      The Essentials of Teaching Children to Read D.
