Encyclopedia of Stateless Nations James B. Minahan,2016-08-01 This book addresses the numerous national movements of ethnic groups around the world seeking independence more self rule or autonomy movements that have proliferated exponentially in the 21st century In the last 15 years globalization religious radicalization economic changes endangered cultures and languages cultural suppression racial tensions and many other factors have stimulated the emergence of autonomy and independence movements in every corner of the world even in areas formerly considered immune to self government demands such as South America Researching the numerous ethnic groups seeking autonomy or independence worldwide previously required referencing many specialized publications This book makes this difficult to find information available in a single volume presented in a simple format accessible to everyone from high school readers to scholars in advanced studies programs The book provides an extensive update to Greenwood's Encyclopedia of the Stateless Nations Ethnic and National Groups around the World that was published more than a decade earlier Each ethnic group receives an alphabetically organized entry containing information such as alternate names population figures flag or flags geography history culture and languages All the information readers need to understand the motivating factors behind each movement and the current situation of each ethnic group is presented in a compact summary Fact boxes at the beginning of each entry enable students to quickly access key information and consistent entry structure makes for easy cross cultural comparisons     Oromia Gadaa Melbaa,1980     From Modern Myths to Global

Encounters Anke van der Kwaak,Rachel Spronk,Karin Willemse,2005 In western imagery Africa is a continent of static traditional societies that are incompatible with even antithetical to western progress and modernity This book looks into processes of change and transformation in Africa in the context of modernity and globalization showing the resilience rather than the expected demise of local cultures in Africa In this volume the persistent western modern myth is deconstructed Most contributions are from students of Peter Geschiere young Africanists from Africa and Europe from different disciplinary backgrounds including anthropology history political sciences and law Based on extensive fieldwork conducted during the last two decennia they reflect on the three main themes that are central to Geschiere's work African politics the modernity of witchcraft and the construction of communal identities in times of globalization These themes cover some of the most topical subjects currently debated in African studies not only by Geschiere but also by his close colleagues including Jean Fran ois Bayart Achille Mbembe and Jean and John Comaroff all known for being critical and cutting edge This critical attitude has inspired all of the contributions including that of the Latin Americanist Michiel Baud The aforementioned scholars have instigated debates on African politics in terms of Africanizing the state while occult forces witchcraft often being taken to be the hallmark of a traditional world view are understood as part and parcel of processes of modernization and nation state building Ethnic and religious identities intersected with gender class and generation prove to be important anchors of authenticity and autochthony in an era of globalization The personal reflections on the coming of age as Africanists as exemplified by the contributions of Geschiere's students in this volume have theoretical and methodological implications but also throw light on the anthropology of Africa in late twentieth century academia in The Netherlands From modern myths to global encounters is essential reading for students and scholars in African Studies Development Studies Political Science International Law Anthropology and History of Africa as well as for anyone interested in postcolonial African studies

Dinka,2025-10-16 Fifty years after the 1974 Ethiopian revolution Etana H Dinka brings together a who s who of modern Ethiopian studies in order to offer this long overdue analysis of the revolution and its legacies With contributions both from seasoned academics many of whom wrote about the revolution as it developed and from representatives of a younger generation this six part collection offers new insights not only into the revolution itself but also into issues such as the Red Terror the EPRDF revolution of 1991 and Abiy Ahmed s repositioning of Ethiopia after 2018 Such wide ranging analyses cumulatively cast Ethiopia s three successive post revolution regimes not as separate entities but rather as successive attempts to fulfil the promise of the revolution surrounding issues such as ethnicity the nationalities question economic development and the land tenure question In developing this model the collection captures the defining developments and issues in Ethiopia the Horn and the Red Sea region over the past fifty years and it speaks directly to a global body of knowledge about revolutions state making projects and empires and warfare and military interventions in politics A unique collection that expands the historical revolutionary analyses of Ethiopian politics and society to the present in order to suggest new ways of ensuring social economic and environmental justice for all this book is a must read for researchers and upper level students interested in Ethiopia the Horn of Africa African Studies and revolutionary politics and land economics in general
