Islam Instrumentalized Jean-Philippe Platteau, 2017-06-06 In this book economist Jean Philippe Platteau addresses the question does Islam the religion of Muslims bear some responsibility for a lack of economic development in the countries in which it dominates In his nuanced approach Platteau challenges the widespread view that the doctrine of Islam is reactionary in the sense that it defends tradition against modernity and individual freedom He also questions the view that fusion between religion and politics is characteristic of Islam and predisposes it to theocracy He disagrees with the substantivist view that Islam is a major obstacle to modern development because of a merging of religion and the state or a fusion between the spiritual and political domains But he also identifies how Islam s decentralized organization in the context of autocratic regimes may cause political instability and make reforms costly

The Macroeconomics of Corruption Maksym

Ivanyna, Alex Mourmouras, Peter Rangazas, 2017-11-29 This textbook examines corruption through a macroeconomic lens exploring the relationship between corruption fiscal policy and political economy The book merges macroeconomic growth models with elements of political economic theory to address important applied topics such as income inequality within and across countries growth slowdowns and fiscal crises Most of the basic ideas are illustrated using a two period model of government investment that captures the future cost of policies that favor the present Chapters 2 3 The more subtle and advanced issues are illustrated and in some cases quantified using the overlapping generations model of economic growth Chapters 4 6 The models used to illustrate the mechanisms of economic growth are extended to incorporate politics and the behavior of public officials Chapters 3 5 7 The text concludes with a thorough discussion of policy reforms designed to address the issues discussed in earlier chapters Intended for students familiar with intermediate level economics the book contains a technical appendix including detailed explanations of each model end of chapter questions and problems and a complete solutions manual making it ideal for self study Offering a unified explanation for the causes and consequences of government failure fiscal crisis and the needed policy reforms this text is appropriate for advanced undergraduate and beginning graduate courses in macroeconomics political economy and public policy

Who Was Muhammad? Doug Hardt, 2016-04-20 Whether we will admit it or not it happens all the time We often judge individuals families churches and other organizations based on a lack of information We hear something negative about a teenager in our child s class and assume that the parents are slacking off we get reprimanded by the church greeter for our attire and assume that the whole church is unfriendly and cold we listen to the news about a greedy CEO and assume the whole company is out to rip us off Following this train of thought what do you think of when you hear the name Muhammad Do you think of a prophet of God sent to the Arabs or do you think of a leader who formed a blood thirsty religion Your perception will most likely be skewed by what you know about Muslims today But that begs the question What do you really know about Muhammad and Islam Are you willing to study and learn about his life and teachings Are you willing to reach across the divide and get to know the descendants of Abraham so that we can relate to them better Who Was Muhammad An Analysis of the Prophet of Islam in Light of the Bible and the Quran engages readers in a fascinating study of the life and times of Muhammad from a historical and prophetic standpoint Pastor Doug Hardt then launches readers into an in depth study of the Quran and Muhammad s teachings to see if they agree or disagree with the Word of God This book will deepen your understanding of the origin of the second largest religion in the world The Book Review Digest ,2006 Tell It to the World Elliott Behar,2014-12-27 Hilary Weston Writers Trust Prize for Nonfiction Shortlisted On April 5 1999 Serbian police found a truck half submerged in the Danube River When they looked inside they found it filled with human bodies Following orders they hid the truck and its contents Two weeks later on the other side of Serbia the same thing happened The full picture would only emerge years later when the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia investigated and prosecuted the chief architects of the ethnic cleansing of Kosovo These cases which formally came to a close in 2014 exposed a secret campaign to hide terrible crimes by transporting and concealing the bodies of the dead In Tell It to the World Elliott Behar a former war crimes prosecutor tells the true story of what unfolded He examines the causes and consequences of mass violence identifying a powerful and disturbing connection between the justice we seek and the injustices we commit Justice and the Just War Tradition Christopher J. Eberle,2016-02-05 Justice and the Just War Tradition articulates a distinctive understanding of the reasons that can justify war of the reasons that cannot justify war and of the role that those reasons should play in the motivational and attitudinal lives of the citizens soldiers and statesmen who participate in war Eberle does so by relying on a robust conception of human worth rights and justice He locates this theoretical account squarely in the Just War Tradition But his account is not merely theoretical Justice and the Just War Tradition has a variety of practical aims one of the most important of which is to serve as an aid to moral formation The hope is that citizens soldiers and statesmen whose emotions and aspirations have been shaped by the Just War Tradition will be able to negotiate violent communal conflict in ways that respect the demands of justice So Justice and the Just War Tradition articulates a theoretically satisfying and practically engaging account of the reasons that count in favor of war Moreover Eberle develops that account by engaging contemporary theorists both philosophical and theological by according due deference to venerable contributors to the Just War Tradition and by integrating insights from military memoir the history of war and the author s experience of teaching ethics at the United States Naval Academy A Concise History of the Middle East Arthur Goldschmidt, Lawrence Davidson,2010 The classic bestseller on the history of the Middle East by renowned scholars Arthur Goldschmidt and Lawrence Davidson updated to reflect the latest scholarship and recent events in this turbulent region Joint Force Quarterly ,2010 The Publishers Weekly ,2005 Non-territorial Autonomy in Divided Societies John Coakley,2018-03-08 Non territorial autonomy is an unusual method of government based on the notion of the devolution of power to entities within the state which exercise jurisdiction over a population defined by personal features such as opting for a particular ethnic nationality rather than by geographical location such as the region in which they live Developed theoretically by Karl Renner in the early twentieth century as a mechanism for responding to demands for self government from dispersed minorities within the Austro Hungarian empire it had earlier roots in the Ottoman empire and later formed the basis for constitutional experiments in Estonia in Belgium and in states with sizeable but dispersed indigenous minorities More recently efforts have been made to apply it in indigenous communities This approach to the management of ethnic conflict has attracted a small literature but there is no comprehensive overview of its application The intention of this special issue is to fill this gap for the first time offering a comparative assessment of the significance of this political institutional device Authors of case studies follow a common framework This book was published as a special issue of Ethnopolitics Women in Policing around the World Venessa Garcia, 2021-03-24 Women in Policing around the World is a historical legal political and social examination of women in policing The book opens with a comparison of cultural definitions of gender and how this affects women s work in general and policing specifically The book then takes the reader through women in policing in the Eastern and Western Hemispheres featuring several countries within the major regions of the world Major commonalities and differences are identified in the areas of recruitment training deployment promotion and violence against women Among the key features of this book is a balanced coverage of historical and timely events that led to the current status of women police in their respective countries The book identifies the commonalities that women police experience throughout the world relying on the most current research The book also dedicates coverage of policing violence against women in society as well as within the police organization itself The author includes tables to allow for national comparisons throughout the book as well as current and historical photos This book is intended for researchers and students of police culture and women in policing It does not rely heavily on one country or region thus allowing for an enlightening international comparison
