Our Secret Territory Laura Simms, 2011-08-16 Examines the spiritual and social aspects of storytelling and its process of engagement. From publisher description.

My Youth by Sea and Land Charles Loftus, 1876

Lullabies for Old Ladies Vera Varga, 2015-09-18 The thirteen short stories show the life and challenges of a group of Romanian and Romanian Jew friends after they escape Romania of Ceausescu. Their destinies brought them first to Israel and subsequently to Canada or USA. The main characters are Dan and Vera, a couple struggling to come to terms with immigration, assimilation, and with Dan's mild borderline personality disorder. Vera's struggle to keep the balance in life and the sanity in her family as a first generation immigrant is also shown. The stories are fiction inspired by real life.

Encountering Choran Community Emily Hinnov, 2009-07 Through a transnational perspective, Emily M. Hinnov's Encountering Choran Community (Literary Modernism, Visual Culture, and Political Aesthetics in the Interwar Years) identifies and describes modernist choran community as a previously understudied key counter narrative to Modernism's engagement with early twentieth century master narratives. Hinnov uses the term choran community in order to emphasize the almost sacred nature of the experience represented in common by select modernist texts, photographs, and photo texts produced in the interwar period. As Hinnov describes, choran community comes about as a result of the choran moment or textual instant when characters and/or readers recognize their connection with a larger inherently unified whole. Whether in a visual, verbal, or hybrid text, the stasis of the choran moment contains the potent possibility of communal awareness or choran community in the future as well as the present. The textual choran communities presented here consequently offset the sexist, racist, and classist solipsism of imperialist or fascist master narrative.

Emily N. Hinnov is Assistant Professor of English at Bowling Green State University Firelands College.
