La quête de l'Afrique dans le candomblé Stefania

e Exu le trickster yoruba et ses r adaptations br siliennes telles que les exus et les pomba giras d umbanda nous accompagnent dans ce voyage au sein de l univers afro br silien montrant par les multiples strat gies de r africanisation la plasticit d une r alit sociale totalement rebelle aux classifications et aux r ductions simplificatrices
