Most Secret War Penguin World War II Collection:

Australian Submarines Vol 2 Michael White, 2015-11-01 The book commences with a discussion of the policy issues as to whether Australia needed submarines and then the decision to buy AE1 and AE2 It then goes through their coming to Australia the tragic loss of AE1 in New Guinea on 14 September 1914 and the bravery and daring of the AE2 crew in penetrating the Dardanelles on Anzac Day in 1915 The history then goes on to deal with the J Class submarines that came to Australia in 1919 the first Oxley and Otway which went to the RN in the Depression in 1931 and the fact that in World War Two Australia had no submarines except for the Dutch K IX whose career ended with a battery explosion in 1944 Then the period of the RN Fourth Submarine Squadron based in Sydney is dealt with including some of the happy memories of those who served in it The book sets out the story of the new RAN submarine arm from 1963 When Oxley S 57 arrived in Neutral Bay Sydney in 1967 so began the new Australian era of submarines The basic dates of the O Boats are outlined along with the building and basic dates of the Collins class The book deals with some of the issues about the intelligence patrols about the Future Submarine and also records the numerous plaques services memorials and museums in Australia and overseas dedicated to Australian submarines and Australian and NZ submariners There is a detailed chapter on special submarine craft such as the X Craft in which some of the submarine heroes like Max Sheean Henty Henty Creer and Ken Briggs served and in some cases died The appendices to this book are numerous and detailed by a strong team from around the world including Garry Mellon Barrie Downer and Pat Heffernan Numerous photographs have been collected and included in the book to fit in with the text from Darren Brown and others The appendices also list all Australian submariners who have qualified and served up until mid 2014 including those who have died

Anglo-American Relations Alan P. Dobson, Steve Marsh, 2013 This book provides an examination of contemporary Anglo American relations Sometimes controversially referred to as the Special Relationship Anglo American relations constitute arguably the most important bilateral relationship of modern times However in recent years there have been frequent pronouncements that this relationship has lost its specialness This volume brings together experts from Britain Europe and North America in a long overdue examination of contemporary Anglo American relations that paints a somewhat different picture The discussion ranges widely from an analysis of the special relationship of culture and friendship to an examination of both traditional e g nuclear relations and more recent e g environment policies Contemporary developments are discussed in the context of longer term trends and contributing authors draw upon a range of different disciplines including political science diplomacy studies business studies and economics Coupled with a substantive introduction and conclusion the result is an insightful and engaging portrayal of the complex Anglo American relationship The book will be of great interest to students of US and UK foreign policy diplomacy and international relations in general
