Kafele, 2009 This thought provoking book from award winning educator Baruti K Kafele offers proven strategies that teachers and administrators can use to motivate and engage black male students at the middle and high school levels Turning High-Poverty Schools into High-Performing Schools William H. Parrett, Ralph G. Leverett, 2012-02-08 Is it possible for high poverty schools to be high achieving Of course it is Real schools with students living in poverty do post high levels of student achievement Learn what these schools do to help students succeed and how you and your school can adopt the same practices no matter what socio economic climate students live in Lessons learned and practical advice from seven of these high performing high poverty HP HP schools along with hundreds of others that have been the subject of intensive research are the focus of this book Authors William Parrett and Kathleen Budge have synthesized the research studied the schools in depth and show you critical components that set these institutions apart from their struggling peers After setting the context by examining poverty and its stunning effects on students the authors then zero in on what HP HP schools stopped doing or eliminated and what they started doing or improved on in three key areas of performance Building leadership capacity Fostering a safe healthy and supportive learning environment and Focusing on student professional and system learning Principals teacher leaders and district leaders can benefit from the real world examples and practical guidelines all based on research and experience Rather than suggesting a one size fits all approach the authors acknowledge the unique context of individual schools and urge readers to engage in self assessment reflection and coordinated action to learn together and lead together with rubrics and planning templates provided to guide the process The reality is that any school willing to refocus its efforts can become a high performing school

Is My School a Better School BECAUSE I Lead It? Baruti K. Kafele, 2018-10-18 In this latest installment to his series of best selling self reflection guides celebrated educator author and motivational speaker Baruti Kafele offers school leaders 35 thought provoking questions to ponder from one fundamental overarching query Is my school a better school because I lead it Musing deeply on discrete leadership matters is an essential component of success for anybody overseeing the day to day operations of a school and doubly so in communities plagued by drugs violence or other markers of societal dysfunction In this book Kafele offers those seeking to improve the quality of instruction in their institutions hard won wisdom on such critical issues as ensuring an optimal culture and climate engaging in parent and community outreach confirming emergency preparedness rallying staff and much more Because the sheer volume of responsibilities for a principal or assistant principal can leave you with very little time for developing an effective and consistent self reflection regimen Kafele has done the work for you You need only open the book and begin reading to embark upon a penetratingly insightful journey destined to transform your practice boost teacher satisfaction and most important of all inspire students to excel academically The Secrets for Motivating, Educating, and Lifting the Spirit of African American Males Ernest H. Johnson, 2011-11-21

Unlike the media would have you believe most black males find great value in education They want to believe that they have a special gift and that they can make a difference in the world The problem is that they have ill feelings about how society has deprived them of the most qualified teachers and the best ways to be engaged in their own education As a consequence of repeatedly being marginalized criticized and put down by society and teachers they do not feel motivated to attend school or to produce outstanding academic work The Secrets for Motivating Educating and Lifting the Spirit of African American Males contains essays that center on how to help educators and parents to equip young black males with the drive necessary to craft fulfilling lives for themselves so they dont slip through the cracks in the educational system Historically we are still dealing with what happens to the image of Black people in the minds of white people A book like this helps to make certain that the information teachers provide to all students regardless of their race will help them understand that the history of this country has made generation after generation of black students see themselves as academically and socially inferior to white people Most importantly its the teachers not just black teachers but all teachers who have to understand the power they have to change the mindset of society Changing how society thinks about Black people particularly Black males is a task teachers can truly accomplish because they have the power to create lesson plans that challenge how students think about each other For such lessons are important for changing the attitudes and beliefs of the entire community in which we live REVEREND C T VIVIAN A Pioneer of the Civil Rights Movement Author Educator and a Close Friend of Reverend Dr Martin Luther King Jr This book provides a fresh perspective for understanding the problems associated with the education of Black males As a minister I have not encountered a project that gathers the collective wisdom of a group of over 20 Black male educators who are dedicated to helping the world save young Black males When all their ideas come together they are bound to create a storm of new thinking about how all of us can work together As a spiritual leader my role is to help young Black males understand that the same God that was in Dr King is the same God that is in them This is a difficult lesson for some Black males who have been brainwashed to see themselves as having no say about the outcome of their lives This book will help us including those in the ministry to reevaluate the thinking patterns of our boys so that we can better prepare them for the critical thinking that is required for life in the 21st century REVEREND ROBERT KILGORE Assistant Pastor at Hillside
