Machine Learning in Finance Musa Gün, Burcu Kartal, 2025-03-29 This book discusses the evolution of technical features in decentralized finance and focuses on machine learning finance in emerging economies. As technological advancement evolves at an unpredictable pace, the financial industry, like every other sector, must adapt accordingly. Furthermore, the rapid expansion of diverse financial products and services is creating new applications and markets. Alongside technological progress, the exploration of complex patterns in vast amounts of data known as big data is facilitated by its commonly acknowledged characteristics: volume, variety, veracity, value, and velocity. Overall, machine learning has become crucial in the financial industry, allowing businesses to automate operations, gain insights from data, and make more informed decisions in real time. This edited book covers algorithmic trading, risk management, fraud detection, customer service, and personalization, portfolio management, credit scoring, sentiment analysis, and algorithmic pricing. The book connects theoretical concepts with practical real-world applications, benefiting professionals looking to enhance their proficiency in using these methods efficiently. It offers insightful guidance for theorists, market participants, and policymakers by exploring financial theories and practices in light of contemporary machine learning approaches, with a special emphasis on emerging economies.

Black British Postcolonial Feminist Ways of Seeing Human Rights Pamela Odih, 2024-12-29 This book traces the feminine soul of Afrobeat from tumultuous colonial her stories through to the vibrant heterotopias of the urban spaces and times of Black British youths of African racial heritage. Communicative action is a human right as per the portents of the United Nations in its 1948 declaration which recognises the human right to communication. Borne from the cultural political struggles against persistent coloniality in post-independence Nigeria, Afrobeat is communicative action. Afrobeat is the music of Nigerian dissent that has become the music of an African diaspora. Unique in its way of seeing intergenerational decolonial diaspora studies through the refracted prism of Nigerian Afrobeat, this book's extensive empirical and theoretical basis is directed toward the question: How to be Black British born in a country that colonised our maternal ancestors? It will be of interest to scholars and students in gender studies, African studies, decolonial studies, sociology, and media studies.

How to Sell (eCommerce) Nicolae Sfetcu, 2015-10-18 Techniques and actions for a company to develop the sale of the products and services by adapting where necessary the production and commercialization to consumer needs. Marketing is considered as the first creative link that will lead to sales. In an environment increasingly changing, the marketing strategy is mobilized to retain a focused and solvent clients by providing economies of scale necessary for the success of the company. By advertising, marketing can also be used to create a portfolio of new customers without automatically seek a margin in the short term. The marketing strategy aims to put the company in question in line with the implicit or explicit requirements of the market in which it operates. The foundations of the strategy are to discover and especially to influence the needs of potential customers and identify products and services. Political communication, advertising, promotion, and organization of the sale of products is in turn the most visible part of marketing to the general public The rise of information technology and communications coupled with changes in consumption patterns nomadism mobility leads marketers to rethink their campaigns by combining optimally different messages and channels Interchange Level 1 Teacher's Edition with Assessment Audio
