Ukray,2024-12-04 Isaac Newton was a shy quiet boy growing up on a farm in England 300 years ago He was not a very good student and nobody paid much attention to him Nobody that is except the school bully One day the bully punched Isaac in the stomach That hurt and that got Isaac very mad He pulled himself up straight and fought back Isaac pushed the bully onto the ground and rubbed his face in the mud All the other kids hated the bully and came and cheered for Isaac So Isaac taught the bully a lesson but he wasn t satisfied with that Now that he knew he could fight better than the bully he wanted to prove that he could do anything better than the bully So he started paying attention to school and studying hard He was soon the top of his class proving he was smarter than the bully too Isaac Newton kept on studying and when he grew up he became a math professor at Cambridge University He discovered lots of important things and is one of the most famous scientists who ever lived But One day Isaac was reading a book under an apple tree on the farm An apple fell out of the tree bonk Ow Now for most people that would be the end of the story but not for Isaac Not for somebody who just couldn t stop asking why all the time Why did the apple fall out of the tree Does everything fall What makes things fall Can anything stop things from falling Are the sun moon and stars falling Why don t they ever hit the ground So many questions Newton spent many years answering these questions by thinking and doing experiments He made up the law of gravity According to this law everything pulled everything else to itself by a force called gravity How strong that force is depends on how heavy the things are and how close together This book telling this excellent biographic story very simple teaching and amazingly The Mysteries of Modern London George Robert Sims,2024-12-05 A MYSTERY is in a popular sense that which cannot be easily explained a circumstance that cannot be readily accounted for Something is but how or why we cannot tell The mysteries of modern

London are as the sands of the seashore The mighty city itself is a mystery The lives of thousands of its inhabitants are mysteries In the glare and clamour of the noonday as in the darkness and silence of the night the mysteries arise sometimes to startle the world sometimes to attract so little attention that the story of them never reaches the public ear There are mysteries blazoned forth with all the glamour that the contents bill and the headline can give them and there are mysteries that are jealously guarded by those high in authority lest public curiosity should seek to fathom them There are mysteries in splendid mansions and in squalid garrets which contain all the elements of criminal romance and yet pass with the police and the press as matter of fact incidents of London's daily life The great river hides more mysteries than ever the Seine gave up to the Paris Morgue and many of them end with a little rest in a quiet mortuary a found drowned hand bill posted for a day or two on a police station notice board an inquest an open verdict and a pauper's funeral But among the victims have been men and women the story of whose doing to death would have thrilled the masses and the classes alike in some instances would have revealed the presence in our midst of active agents of the most desperate secret societies in the world There are no mysteries of modern London more terrible than its unrecorded ones There are disappearances that are never chronicled murders that are never discovered victims of foul play who go certified to the grave as having succumbed to natural causes
