

The background of the cover is a painting. It features a large, vibrant red umbrella in the upper left corner, its fabric appearing to billow. Below the umbrella, a dark-colored baby stroller is depicted. The stroller has large, spoked wheels and a dark frame. A light-colored, possibly white or cream, fabric is draped over the stroller, partially obscuring it. The overall style is painterly, with visible brushstrokes and a warm, slightly muted color palette. The title text is overlaid on the red umbrella.

Mothers, Mothering and Sex Work Jaremko Rebecca Bromwich, 2015-07-01 Exploring the shared intersections of mothering motherhood and sex work Mothers Mothering and Sex Work weaves together a range of voices from academic and sex worker communities around the world It features interdisciplinary contributions scholarly essays academic research artwork poetry photography and experiential narratives Notable among these are two modern masterpieces from literary legends Voices a short story by Alice Munro and excerpts from Maya Angelou's autobiography Gather Together in my Name In the spirit of the adage nothing about us without us Mothers Mothering and Sex Work brings together unique and controversial viewpoints defying conventional wisdom to provide fresh insights into sex workers and their rights Beginning with the political legal and social context of sexuality and gender in Canada the book's focus widens to explore issues affecting sex workers worldwide

Mothers, Mothering and Sex Work Rebecca Bromwich, Monique Marie DeJong, 2015 In a transnational intersectional framework this book discusses lived experiences of legal and governmental frameworks affecting and theorizations of mothers and sex work This is the first collaboration of its kind that is specifically focused on Canada and explores not only what is done to or about sex workers who are mothers under governmental regimes or exploitative traffickers in the context of political and social systems that continue to disempower women in general and mothers in particular but also the agencies of mothers who are sex workers and the mothers of those engaged in sex work This book seeks to open a space for the study of connections between sex work and mother work The text provides a venue for telling stories by sex workers who are or were mothers As such this collection goes beyond a study of how mothering in the context of sex work is regulated by law and society to look at the agencies and lived experiences of sex workers who are mothers It also looks at discourses of sex work and motherhood as complementarily regulating the sexuality of women in a way that reinscribes and maintains a patriarchal social order

How Mamas Love Their Babies Juniper Fitzgerald, 2021-08-17 Illustrating the myriad ways that mothers provide for their children piloting airplanes washing floors or dancing at a strip club this book is the first to depict a sex worker parent It provides an expanded notion of working mothers and challenges the idea that only some jobs result in good parenting We're reminded that while every mama's work looks different every mama works to make their baby's world better
