

MEDIATOR'S OPENING STATEMENT

Good Morning everyone! My name is Jillian Chan. You can call me Jillian. First, Welcome to mediation. I applaud you both for choosing us to work out on your issues together and very much thankful for your participation. I am pleased to assist you in working through your issues and I hope you will find mediation to be a very helpful process.

As your mediator, I am going to lead us through a procedure that will ask each of you to help me understand what brought us here today, and come up with a resolution that meets your needs. My job is to guide the two of you with a solution that works for both of you. In this position, I strive to be neutral, unbiased and impartial. To make our discussion achieve what you both desire, I await each of you to participate in good faith, that you will be respectful of the other person, and that you will listen to one another. I expect that you will speak honestly and bargain in good faith. I may ask you to take down notes of your worries if there's any that you have while the other is talking. I promise to make sure you have an opportunity to share your concerns.

In addition, mediation is a voluntary and informal process used to resolve conflict between the participating parties. To discuss the process, after this, my opening statement, each of you will be given an opportunity to present a statement to have a chance to develop your communications and begins with each party receiving uninterrupted amount of time to explain what brought you to table today. After that, we can set our agenda in order for us to set our step-by-step procedure.

In dealing with our agenda, we can explore the issues that each of you bring forth. During the process, I may ask for a private session in order for you to confess things which you wish to be confidential then we can proceed to a joint session after.

From the several options that we can come up after, you have both the right to choose the most appropriate resolution for the issues and then we will set then a mode of implementation. Thus, this will result with a mutually acceptable written agreement that both of you have signed. If any of you have a special need during the period, please let me know. Also, please silence all electronic devices during this mediation. If you don't have any inquiries, we can now begin.
