Mind On The Run Bipolar Chronicle:

Mind on the Run Dottie Pacharis, 2011 Mind on the Run chronicles a family tragedy the life and death of Scott C Baker It s a story of a family s efforts to help Scott through five major prolonged bipolar manic episodes It s the story of a suicide that proper treatment would have prevented The book tells a compelling story of love and loss It s a tragic account filled with sadness and frustration of a family s futile attempts to save their loved one It takes readers inside the bipolar mind a mind tormented by psychotic and delusional thoughts that erase any semblance of reality a mind trapped in a body ravaged by irreversible damage from untreated bipolar disorder Readers will grieve for Scott as they watch him lose his successful business his family and ultimately his life Even as a broken mental health system protected Scott s civil right to remain mentally ill by refusing treatment it rejected the fight by Scott and his family to obtain timely and humane treatment for him When Scott was well he tried to empower his family to help him during bipolar episodes but the courts rejected his requests His story shows us ways we can improve the system Back cover

Losing My Mind Calvin Dunn, 2012-06-15 This book is about Calvin s struggles with manic episodes and the places his illness has taken him This book gives readers a look into his mind during these episodes so as to paint a picture of what it feels like to be manic and what type of trouble mania can lead to He has written a striking account of his mental operations during his manic episodes and his road to recovery This is his account of his experiences during psychosis His writings detail his extraordinary perceptions during this out of touch with reality state and brings mania to life

Madness, Art, and Society Anna Harpin, 2018-01-19 How is madness experienced treated and represented How might art think around and beyond psychiatric definitions of illness and wellbeing Madness Art and Society engages with artistic practices from theatre and live art to graphic fiction charting a multiplicity of ways of thinking critically with rather than about non normative psychological experience It is organised into two parts Structures psychiatrists institutions treatments illuminates the environments figures and primary models of psychiatric care reconsidering their history and contemporary manifestations through case studies including David Edgar s Mary Barnes and Milos Forman s One Flew Over the Cuckoo s Nest Experiences realities bodies moods problematises diagnostic categories and proposes more radically open models of thinking in relation to experiences of madness touching upon works such as Richard Kelly s Donnie Darko and Duncan Macmillan s People Places and Things Reading its case studies as a counter discourse to orthodox psychiatry Madness Art and Society seeks a more nuanced understanding of the plurality of madness in society and in so doing offers an outstanding resource for students and scholars alike

Runaway Mind Maggie

Reese, 2012-07-01 What if you always knew you were special and then one day you found that being special wasn t a good thing In fact it was very very bad I was a high school cross country track star on a full ride scholarship to the college of my choice when I was hit hard with the most severe form of bipolar disorder manic depressive illness Little did I know then that the only way my speed was going to help me was to escape from a maximum security mental institution Bipolar On one hand the word is loaded with stigma On the other so many celebrities star athletes and other notable people have it that it s often used as a buzz word on the front pages of newspapers The fact is over 3% of people have bipolar disorder and its onset almost always hits during the fragile teenage years My lows took me to the depths of anxiety and pain By comparison my highs seemed magical but how long can you live on 2 hours of sleep a night My poor parents fearing for me and my safety hired bodyguards to try to protect me from myself and the predators who surrounded me One stood by me throughout my long road to recovery He s been my rock for 16 years and my husband for 10 I am sharing my personal story including my shocking extremes of behavior to help other families understand what is happening to their loved ones When my parents tried to understand what was happening to me the only books they found were dry clinical accounts of sad mad lost people not exactly encouraging words for a mom and dad desperately clutching at straws Most people find it hard to believe what I experienced how I managed to survive and how I can be thriving now My story proves that you can go away and come back again and that no matter how bad things look there is hope for a better future
