

Vocabulary Lesson Plan

(working your way through all your flashcards each day)

Day 1 (4/5 minute lesson)

Hold up a flashcard

I say: She/He a ringmaster. (pronouns are often something children confuse so it is good to draw their attention to them)

They say: She/He is a ringmaster.

Repeat the above 3/4 time in quick succession.

I say: Say it.

They say: He is a ringmaster.

Repeat the above 3/4 time in quick succession.

I say: Say it Mary. (a chance to pick focus children)

Mary says: He is a ringmaster.

Repeat with 3/4 children in quick succession.

Day 2

Repeat Day 1, but add one or more adjectives:

I say: He is a tall ringmaster.

Day 3

Repeat Day 2 above, but add one or more adjective and a verb/adverb:

I say: He is a tall ringmaster. He is introducing the circus acts proudly.

Day 4

I say: Give me your own interesting sentence Mary! Use all those interesting words we learnt.

She says: hopefully, repeat back those full sentences you modelled.

Teaching the Struggling Reader Barbara R. Schirmer, 2010 An innovative resource for literacy teachers Teaching the Struggling Reader takes a novel approach to instruction the reading program is based on the needs of the struggling reader rather than the other way around Most teachers plan their reading lesson and then work in the needs of a struggling reader This book is for teachers looking for a more contemporary and inclusive way to teach reading Starting with assessment the author shows you how to group readers by ability and need rather than by risk factors Finally you will save planning time by learning how to incorporate strategies that you already know into developing your lesson rather than changing your style to accommodate the requirements of a particular reading program Using Children's Literature Across the Curriculum Catherine M. O'Callaghan, 2011 This resource uniquely offers preservice and inservice teachers templates for using quality children's literature to implement six themes across grades K-8 The themes are based on national curriculum standards and text sets are carefully selected to facilitate discussion analysis and problem solving across the grades Using Children's Literature Across the Curriculum provides teachers with a guide to using multilayered texts to facilitate students attainment of critical literacy It is designed to be a supplemental text to guide teachers in designing literacy instruction The instructional sequence includes collaborative inquiry activities across the curriculum to extend each theme to math science technology and social studies Teachers are shown how to incorporate family literacy with a component entitled Home School Connections and to differentiate instruction for individual learners with a section entitled On Your Own Activities The theme concludes with a critical literacy activity that applies the content knowledge of the theme with collaborative inquiry A unique feature of the handbook is the emphasis on performance based assessment with each instructional sequence containing two rubrics for the teacher to implement The instructional sequences are meant as models for teachers to use in developing their own themes in order to facilitate critical literacy These models can be adjusted to fit the reading level of the students as teachers become more familiar with the text's structure and their students needs Ideas for Teaching English in the Junior High and Middle School Candy Carter, Zora Rashkis, 1980 The nearly two hundred activities in this teaching guide for language arts in the junior high and middle school are arranged in five sections studying language communicating orally reading and reading literature writing and listening and viewing Each section opens with a list of activities a brief introductory statement and suggested reading Sections are subdivided to help teachers locate activities related to particular curriculum units or areas of special interest All activities were adapted to fit a unified format purpose preparation and presentation Approximately half of the activities contain material that should be distributed to students and these material sheets are printed separately for ease of reproduction and are presented in a special section The appendix contains articles on parental involvement in the language arts program and on a two year program in junior high school writing MKM
