Miller's Antiques Encyclopedia Judith Miller,2003 Miller s Antiques Encyclopedia is the most accessible and authoritative antiques reference book available Chapters cover the traditional and newer areas of collecting from different countries and historical periods from 18th century chests of drawers to 20th century teddy bears from 16th century maiolica to Art Deco sculpture from Anatolian rugs to rock and pop memorabilia    Miller's Antiques Encyclopedia Judith Miller,2005 All the information none of the bulk This handy new compact edition of Miller s Antiques Encyclopedia is essential for antiques hunters and dealers on the move It has everything the original has but in a smaller more portable size that any collector on the hunt will appreciate

Materializing Colonial Encounters François G. Richard,2015-09-19 This volume investigates the material production and expression of colonial experiences in Africa It combines archaeological historical and ethnographic sources to explore the diverse pathways practices and projects constructed by Africans in their engagement with the forces of colonial modernity and capitalism This volume is situated in ongoing debates in archaeological and anthropological approaches to materiality In this respect it seeks to target archaeologists interested in the conceptual issues provoked by colonial enfoldments It is also concerned with increasing the visibility of relevant African archaeological literature to scholars of colonialism and imperialism laboring in other fields This book brings together an array of junior and senior scholars whose contributions represent a rich sample of the vibrant archaeological research conducted in Africa today blending conceptual inspiration with robust fieldwork The chapters target a variety of cultural historical and colonial settings They are driven by a plurality of perspectives but they are bound by a shared commitment to postcolonial critical and material culture theories While this book focuses on western and southern Africa the sub regions that boast the deepest traditions of historical archaeological research in the continent attention was also placed on including case studies from traditionally less well represented areas East African and Swahili coasts Madagascar whose material pasts are nevertheless essential to a wider comprehension of variability and comparability of modern colonial conditions Consequently this volume lends a unique wide ranging look at African experiences across the tangle of imperial geographies on the continent with case studies focusing on Anglophone Francophone and Dutch speaking contexts This volume is an exciting opportunity to present this work to wider audiences and foster conversations with a wide community of scholars about the material fashioning of colonial life relations and configurations of power
