With elections set to take place in late 2015 the world is eagerly watching to see how things will unfold. After spending decades as one of the most isolated and least developed countries in Asia Myanmar is emerging as one of the world's fastest growing economies. Agriculture, manufacturing and mining are some of Myanmar's top contributors to GDP which was forecast to reach 8.5% in FY2014/15 and FY2015/16. While foreign investment is accelerating there are ways in which it remains blocked. As the country continues to re-integrate with the global economy continued reforms as well as the opening of more economic sectors to foreign investors will help unlock the country's potential. Academic

Autoethnographies Daisy Pillay, Inbanathan Naicker, Kathleen Pithouse-Morgan, 2016-02-10 Academic Autoethnographies Inside Teaching in Higher Education invites readers to experience autoethnography as a challenging, complex and creative research methodology that can produce personally, professionally and socially useful understandings of teaching and researching in higher education. The peer-reviewed chapters offer innovative and perspicacious explorations of interrelationships between personal autobiographies, lived educational experiences and wider social and cultural concerns across diverse disciplines and university contexts. This edited book is distinctive within the existing body of autoethnographic scholarship in that the original research presented has been done in relation to predominantly South African university settings. This research is complemented by contributions from Canadian and Swedish scholars. The sociocultural, educational and methodological insights communicated in this book will be valuable for specialists in the field of higher education and to those in other academic domains who are interested in self-reflexive, transformative and creative research methodologies and methods. This book illuminates how autoethnography can engage authors and researchers from varied epistemological backgrounds in a reflexive multilogue about who they are and what they do. The creative representations of the lived experience of doing autoethnography sets the book apart both methodologically and theoretically, revealing how rigor and critical distance can serve to position autoethnography not only as a personal self-development tool but a tradition and method in its own right. Hyleen Mariaye, Associate Professor, Mauritius Institute of Education, Mauritius. This compelling book foregrounds autoethnography as an innovative and creative research methodology to generate reflexive, sociological
