Promotional Screen Industries Paul Grainge, Catherine Johnson, 2015-03-27 From the trailers and promos that surround film and television to the ads and brand videos that are sought out and shared promotional media have become a central part of contemporary screen life. Promotional Screen Industries is the first book to explore the sector responsible for this thriving area of media production. In a wide ranging analysis Paul Grainge and Catherine Johnson explore the intermediaries advertising agencies, television promotion specialists, movie trailer houses, digital design companies that compete and collaborate in the fluid, fast moving world of promotional screen work. Through interview based fieldwork with companies and practitioners based in the UK, US and China, Promotional Screen Industries encourages us to see promotion as a professional and creative discipline with its own opportunities and challenges. Outlining how shifts in the digital media environment have unsettled the boundaries of promotion and content, the authors provide new insight into the sector work strategies and imaginaries of contemporary screen promotion. With case studies on mobile communication, television, film and live events, this timely book offers a compelling examination of the industrial configurations and media forms such as ads, apps, promos, trailers, digital shorts, branded entertainment and experiential media that define promotional screen culture at the beginning of the twenty first century.

Coming Back to a Theater Near You Brian Hannan, 2016-06-14 In the Silent Era film reissues were a battle between rival studios, every Mary Pickford new release in 1914 was met with a Pickford re-release. For 50 years after the Silent Era, reissues were a battle between the studios who considered old movies found money and cinema owners who often saw audiences reject former box office hits. In the mid 1960s the return of The Bridge on the River Kwai 1957, the second biggest reissue of all time, altered industry perceptions and James Bond double features pushed the revival market to new heights. In the digital age, reissues have continued to confound the critics. This is the untold hundred year story of how old movies saved new Hollywood. Covering the booms and busts of a recycling business that became its own industry, the author describes how the likes of Charlie Chaplin, Humphrey Bogart and Alfred Hitchcock won over new generations of audiences and explores the lasting appeal of films like Napoleon 1927, Gone with the Wind 1939, The Rocky Horror Show 1975 and Blade Runner 1982.
