Cyber Security in the Age of Artificial Intelligence and Autonomous Weapons

Mehmet Emin Erendor, 2024-11-19 Although recent advances in technology have made life easier for individuals societies and states they have also led to the emergence of new and different problems in the context of security In this context it does not seem possible to analyze the developments in the field of cyber security only with information theft or hacking especially in the age of artificial intelligence and autonomous weapons For this reason the main purpose of this book is to explain the phenomena from a different perspective by addressing artificial intelligence and autonomous weapons which remain in the background while focusing on cyber security By addressing these phenomena the book aims to make the study multidisciplinary and to include authors from different countries and different geographies The scope and content of the study differs significantly from other books in terms of the issues it addresses and deals with When we look at the main features of the study we can say the following Handles the concept of security within the framework of technological development Includes artificial intelligence and radicalization which has little place in the literature Evaluates the phenomenon of cyber espionage Provides an approach to future wars Examines the course of wars within the framework of the Clausewitz trilogy Explores ethical elements Addresses legal approaches In this context the book offers readers a hope as well as a warning about how technology can be used for the public good Individuals working in government law enforcement and technology companies can learn useful lessons from it

Dangerous Fictions

Lyta Gold, 2024-10-29 In a political moment when social panics over literature are at their peak Dangerous Fictions is a mind expanding treatise on the nature of fictional stories as cultural battlegrounds for power. Fictional stories have long held an uncanny power over hearts and minds especially those of young people. In Dangerous Fictions Lyta Gold traces arguments both historical and contemporary that have labeled fiction as dark, immoral, frightening or poisonous. Within each she asks How dangerous is fiction really? And what about it provokes waves of moral panic and even censorship? Gold argues that any panic about art is largely a disguised panic about power. There have been versions of these same fights over fiction for centuries. By exposing fiction as a social danger and a battleground of immediate public concern we can see what each side really wants the right to shape the future of a world deeply in flux and a distraction from more pressing material concerns about money, access and the hard work of politics. From novels about people driven insane by reading novels to copaganda TV shows that influence how viewers regard the police, Gold uses her signature wit, research and fearless commentary to point readers toward a more substantial question. Fiction may be dangerous to us but aren't we also dangerous to it?
