Origins Reconsidered In Search Of What Makes Us Human:

Origins Reconsidered Richard E. Leakey, Roger Lewin, 1992 Reassesses human prehistory incorporating ideas from philosophy anthropology molecular biology and linguistics to explore how humans acquired the qualities of consciousness and humanity The Comprehensive Guide to Science and Faith William A. Dembski, Casey Luskin, Joseph M. Holden, 2021-10-05 Science and Faith Can and Do Support Each Other Science and Christianity are often presented as opposites when in fact the order of the universe and the complexity of life powerfully testify to intelligent design With this comprehensive resource that includes the latest research you ll witness how the findings of scientists provide compelling reasons to acknowledge the mind and presence of a creator Featuring more than 45 entries by top caliber experts you ll better understand how scientific concepts like intelligent design are supported by evidence the scientific findings that support the history and accounts found in the Bible the biases that lead to scientific information being presented as a challenge rather than a complement to Christianity Whether you re looking for answers to your own questions or seeking to explain the case for intelligent design to others The Comprehensive Guide to Science and Faith is an invaluable apologetic tool that will help you explore and analyze the relevant facts research and theories in light of biblical truth Borderlands of the Spirit John Herlihy, 2005 Through a penetrating analysis of reason and intellect spiritual imagination and the light of faith this book addresses fundamental questions pertaining to our search for meaning The Great Ice Age J.A. Chapman, S.A. all at The Open University Drury, R.C.L. Wilson, 2005-06-21 Documents and explains the natural climatic and ecological changes that have occurred during the past 2 6 million years It also outlines the emergence and global impact of humans during this period Great Feuds in Science Hal Hellman, 2008-04-21 The dramatic stories of ten historic feuds How they altered the course of discovery and shaped the modern world Hall Hellman tells the lively stories of ten of the most outrageous and intriguing disputes from the seventeenth to the twentieth centuries Bringing the cataclysmic clash of ideas and personalities to colorful life Hellman explores both the science and the spirit of the times Along the way he reveals that scientific feuds are fueled not only by the purest of intellectual disagreements but also by intransigence ambition jealousy politics faith and the irresistible human urge to be right Unusual insight into the development of science I was excited by this book and enthusiastically recommend it to general as well as scientific audiences American Scientist Hellman has assembled a series of entertaining tales many fine examples of heady invective without parallel in our time Nature An entertaining and informative account of the unusual personalities and sometimes bitter rivalries of some of the world s greatest scientific minds Publishers Weekly A fascinating new book which details some of the most famous disputes of the ages Courier Mail Dry science history turns into entertaining reading without sacrificing historical accuracy The Christchurch Press Great Feuds in Science is wonderful history as the reader learns how scientists had to fight with religious leaders and other scientists to get their work recognized accepted and even get the credit for it Bookviews The Stone Age Patricia D.

Netzley,1998 Discusses the long period of human history known as the Stone Age during which humans evolved into beings capable of inventing and using increasingly sophisticated tools and creating complex social groupings Biological Anthropology Michael Alan Park,1996 Discussing the core areas of the discipline within a framework modelled on the scientific method this is a concise introduction to biological anthropology There is an emphasis on themes and theories with facts presented as supportive evidence rather than dissociated pieces of information Extensive discussion of topics such as the origins of bipedalism and the evolution of modern homo sapiens provide examples of how scientists generate and test hypotheses Bulletin of Primitive Technology ,1994 Cultural Anthropology Marvin Harris,1995 Written by the author of The Guru of Cultural Materialism this revised text unites seemingly unrelated topics Harris uses everyday applications of anthropological theories and issues in a user friendly way Two new chapters one on race ethnicity and racism and the other on human sexuality discuss new research and developments in these areas This text also demonstrates the relevance of cultural anthropology to contemporary social problems Updated and expanded chapter previews and new cartoons jokes and illustrations are featured Two new full colour photo essays assist students visual understanding of cultural diversity In the Footsteps of Eve Lee R. Berger,Brett Hilton-Barber,2000 A gripping scientific detective story straight from today s headlines recounting spectacular discoveries made by a young South African fossil hunter that challenge his field s orthodoxy and that may provide the key to finally unlocking the mysteries surrounding the dawn of humankind New Statesman Society ,1992-10 Original Intelligence David Premack,Ann J. Premack,2003 In Original Intelligence leading experimental psychologist David Premack and his collaborator Ann Premack present a joint effort in teasing out exactly what are the deep characteristics of the human mind as they draw upon their years of brilliant experimentation BOOK JACKET Writing the Modern Research Paper Robert Dees,2003 Writing the Modern Research Paper is a practical and contemporary guide to writing research papers offering students advice on how to think critically throughout the research process Designed as a complete reference this book offers a step by step guide to research encouraging students to think carefully and critically about such issues as audience topic and thesis as well as evaluating integrating and citing sources appropriately The text covers both informative and argumentative purposes for doing research including a full chapter on reasoning and evidence in argumentative research papers Original and realistic student examples throughout show various approaches to the methods of planning and researching This contemporary book offers full coverage of computer research technologies extensive attention to the prewriting and planning stages of the assignment and pedagogy designed to encourage students to work collaboratively There is also unparalleled coverage of the major disciplinary documentation forms MLA APA CBE and Chicago The book also features examples from modern research sources Citation Indexes the Internet not covered in other texts The Chimpanzees who Would be Ants Russell Genet,1997 The Dark Side Of Man Michael P.
