Oriki Oyo:

Kingdoms of the Yoruba Robert Sydney Smith, 1988 This third edition of what has been described as this minor classic has been extensively revised to take account of advances in Nigerian historiography The twenty million Yorubas are one of the largest and most important groups of people on the African continent Historically they were organized in a series of autonomous kingdoms and their past is richly recorded in oral tradition and archaeology From the fifteenth century onwards there are descriptions by visitors and from the nineteenth century there are abundant official reports from administrators and missionaries Yoruba sculpture in stone metal ivory and wood is famous Less well known are the elaborate and carefully designed constitutional forms which were evolved in the separate kingdoms the methods of warfare and diplomacy the oral literature and the religion based on the worship of a high god surrounded by a pantheon of more accessible deities Many of these aspects are shown in the drawings and photographs which have been used for the first time to illustrate this distinguished work

Yoruba Gurus Toyin Falola, 1999 Toyin Falola one of the most prominent interpreters of Yoruba History has written an outstanding and brilliant pioneer book that reveals valuable knowledge on African local historians This is one of the most impressive books on the Yoruba in recent years and the best so far on Yoruba intellectual history The range of coverage is extensive the reading is stimulating and the ideas are innovative This is indeed a major contribution to historical knowledge that all students of African history will find especially useful This original study will find itself in the list of the most important studies of the 20th century Julius O Adekunle Monmouth University

Telling Our Stories A. Alabi, 2005-04-15 Telling Our Stories investigates the continuities and divergences in selected Black autobiographies from Africa the Caribbean and the United States The stories of slaves creative writers and political activists are discussed both as texts produced by individuals who are products of specific societies and as interconnected books The book identifies influences of environmental and cultural differences on the texts while it adopts cross cultural and postcolonial reading approaches to examine the continuities and divergences in them
