The Creativity Question Albert Rothenberg, Carl R. Hausman, 1976 Albert Rothenberg a psychiatrist and Carl R. Hausman a philosopher have prepared a truly comprehensive interdisciplinary book of readings on creativity This group of selections from the works of writers in psychiatry philosophy psychology psychoanalysis and education brings together for the first time major theoretical works outstanding empirical findings and discussions of the definition and nature of creativity The organization of The Creativity Question is unique it illustrates the various approaches and basic assumptions underlying studies of creativity throughout the course of history up to the present time The main body of selections appears under the categories of descriptions attempts at explanation and alternate approaches As specific orientations to creativity can be traced to particular initiating thinkers and investigators there is a special chapter on seminal accounts containing selections from the works of Plato Aristotle Kant Galton and Freud Another chapter includes recent illustrations of special types of exploratory trends creativity of women brain research synectics extrasensory perception behaviorism and creativity computer programming This organization highlights the tension between strictly scientific accounts and alternative approaches offering new ways of understanding The editors have provided for the books as a whole and for each chapter explanation and discussion of the basic issues raised by the various approaches to creativity Anaïs, Art and Artists

Sharon Spencer, 1986 Meister Eckhart Matthew Fox, 2014-06-01 Though he lived in the thirteenth century Meister Eckhart's teachings were in many ways modern His thinking was deeply ecumenical encompassing Judaism Buddhism and Hinduism as well as shamanism and indigenous spirituality He advocated for social economic and gender justice taught about what we call ecology and championed artistic creativity All these elements have inspired Matthew Fox and influenced his Creation Spirituality While Fox recognizes that Eckhart has influenced everyone from Teresa of Avila to Eckhart Tolle Karl Marx to Carl Jung and Annie Dillard to Anne Morrow Lindbergh he also wants to introduce Eckhart to those activists addressing contemporary crises Toward that end and as he did in his Hildegard of Bingen Fox creates metaphorical meetings between Eckhart and the Dalai Lama Thomas Merton Joanna Macy Black Elk Rumi Adrienne Rich and others The result is wonderfully reader friendly profoundly substantive and deeply inspiring Between Self and Society John

Rodden, 2016-01-15 Between Self and Society explores the psychosocial dramas that galvanize six major British novels written between the eighteenth and twentieth centuries The book challenges an influential misconception that has for too long hindered appreciation of the psychological novel John Rodden argues that there should be no simplifying antithesis between psychological inner conflicts within the mind or soul and institutional outer conflicts within family class community

Instead it is the overarching dramatic yet often tortuous relations between self and society that demand our attention Rodden presents fresh interpretations of an eclectic group of prose fiction classics including Tobias Smollett's The Adventures of Roderick Random William Godwin's Caleb Williams Thomas Hardy's The Mayor of Casterbridge Ford Madox Ford's The Good Soldier Wyndham Lewis's Tarr and D H Lawrence's Women in Love Far from being merely admirable experiments let alone daring though interesting failures these fictions are shown to possess aesthetic unity stylistic consistency and psychic force Between Self and Society thus impels our careful reconsideration of novels that represent major artistic achievements yet have been either unjustly neglected or appreciated in limiting ways that do injustice to their psychological aspects Rodden's vibrant discussion invites an upward revaluation of these works and encourages the full recognition of their value and significance in British literary history

Cezanne's Composition Erle Loran, 2023-12-22 Erle Loran's Cezanne's Composition offers a comprehensive and analytical exploration of the compositional techniques used by Paul Cezanne emphasizing form color and space organization Far from being a traditional art critique this book presents a methodical study of Cezanne's revolutionary approach to space composition shedding light on aspects of his work that have often been misunderstood or overlooked Loran provides clear diagrams and photographs that demonstrate Cezanne's techniques making it accessible to artists students and scholars alike who are interested in a more tangible structured understanding of the artist's process While the book delves into Cezanne's unique use of line and color it does not assert that the artist consciously employed all the theoretical principles outlined Instead Loran focuses on providing a practical framework for understanding Cezanne's compositions which can be applied more broadly to the study of art He addresses common misconceptions such as the overemphasis of linearity in Cezanne's work and clarifies that while Cezanne's approach was innovative it still adhered to a fundamental structure Loran's approach is ideal for those seeking a grounded demonstrable analysis of painting without straying into subjective interpretations of the creative process making it a valuable resource for those who wish to explore Cezanne's influence on modern art This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1943 Theatre Arts Monthly, 1939 The Polish Review, 1968 The Chicago Jewish Forum, 1950
