Down Bekah McNeel, 2022-10-11 This book is about the various places and ways that uncertainty shows up for parents who having left or altered the faith they once knew now must decide what to give their kids It s about church attendance Bible memorization school choices and sex talks It s about forging new paths in racial justice and creation care while the intractable voices in your head call you a pagan Marxist for doing so After the spectacular implosion of her ministry career Bekah McNeel was left disillusioned and without the foundation of certainty she had built her life on But rather than leaving the Christian faith altogether she hung out around the edges began questioning oversimplified categories of black and white that she had been taught were sacred and became comfortable living in gray areas while starting a new career in journalism Then she had kids From the moment someone asked if she was going to have her first child baptized Bekah began to wonder if the conservative evangelical Christianity she grew up with was really something she wanted to give her children That question only became more complicated when she had her second child months before White evangelicals carried Donald Trump to victory in the 2016 presidential election Soon Bekah found that other parents were asking similar questions as they broke with their fundamentalist religious upbringing and took on new values Could they raise their kids to live with both the security of faith and the freedom of open mindedness To value both Scripture and social justice To learn morality without shame In Bringing Up Kids When Church Lets You Down Bekah gathers voices from history scholarship and her own community to guide others who like her are on a quest to shed the false certainty and toxic perfectionism of their past to become better healthier parents while still providing strong spiritual foundations for their children She writes with humor and empathy providing wise reflections but not glib answers on difficult parenting topics while reminding us that we are not alone even when we break away from the crowd

Sirmans, Sr., 2006-12 Freddie L. Sirmans former education is limited to a high school grad and one semester of college But he is a fairly well read neurotic survivor He has one of the deepest and penetrating economical minds there is today He knows the US and western Europe is doomed unless they privatize out of their welfare states The welfare state has all but destroyed western civilization The liberals and their welfare state have destroyed our culture and any capacity to barter as a last resort to survive A lack of true survival struggle is the main causes of liberalism      Talking with Your Kids about Jesus Natasha Crain, 2020-03-31 You already know the world is becoming an increasingly secular place that will undoubtedly challenge your child's faith in Jesus But do you know specifically what those faith challenges are how to effectively talk with your child about them and what that means for you as a Christian parent on a day to day basis If your answer is no you're not alone Many Christian parents feel the same But here's the good news Talking with Your Kids about Jesus will give you the confidence you need to have the conversations that matter most in today's skeptical world In a friendly parent to parent voice Natasha Crain will walk you through essential topics on Jesus's identity teachings death and resurrection Each chapter clearly explains what skeptics are saying and provides a concise easy to understand response you can discuss with your child one that can be tailored for any age Chapters are sequenced in a curriculum oriented way to provide a cumulative learning experience making this book a flexible resource for use in multiple settings homes church classes youth groups small groups private Christian schools and homeschools Every chapter has a step by step conversation guide with discussion questions and tips and content is readily adaptable for use with kids of any age      Let Our Children Go! Ted Patrick, Tom Dulack, 1979 Factual stories about a former civil servant from California whose life's mission is to rescue young people who have fallen prey to pseudo religious cults      It's Killing Our Kids Jerry Johnston, 1990-09      Sugar's Life in the Hood Sugar Turner, Tracy Bachrach Ehlers, 2002-06-15 Through conversations with Ehlers diary entries and letters Turner vividly and openly describes all aspects of her life including motherhood relationships with men welfare and work and her attachment to her friends family and life in the hood Ehlers also gives her reactions to Turner's story discussing not only how it belies the welfare queen stereotype but also how it forced her to confront her own lingering confusions about race her own bigotry BOOK JACKET      Presidential Temples Benjamin Hufbauer, 2005 This book explores the visual and material cultures of presidential commemoration memorials and monuments libraries and archives and the problematic ways in which presidents themselves have largely taken over their own commemoration The author sees these various commemorative sites as playing a key role in the construction of our collective political and cultural self images and as another sign of our preoccupation with celebrity culture Ultimately he contends these presidential temples reflect not only our civil religion but also the extraordinary expansion of executive authority and presidential self commemoration since FDR      Answering Your Kids' Toughest Questions Elyse
