Digital Analytics for Marketing A. Karim Feroz, Gohar F. Khan, Marshall Sponder, 2024-01-25 This second edition of Digital Analytics for Marketing provides students with a comprehensive overview of the tools needed to measure digital activity and implement best practices when using data to inform marketing strategy. It is the first text of its kind to introduce students to analytics platforms from a practical marketing perspective. Demonstrating how to integrate large amounts of data from web, digital, social and search platforms, this helpful guide offers actionable insights into data analysis, explaining how to connect the dots and humanize information to make effective marketing decisions. The authors cover timely topics such as social media, web analytics, marketing analytics challenges and dashboards, helping students to make sense of business measurement challenges, extract insights and take effective actions. The book's experiential approach, combined with chapter objectives, summaries and review questions, will engage readers, deepening their learning by helping them to think outside the box. Filled with engaging interactive exercises and interesting insights from industry experts, this book will appeal to undergraduate and postgraduate students of digital marketing, online marketing and analytics. Online support materials for this book include an instructor's manual, test bank and PowerPoint slides.

Artifacts of An Ex Jennifer Chen, 2023-11-14 In the tradition of Jenny Han and Emma Lord, Jennifer Chen's Artifacts of an Ex is a story of love, art, and finding your way when everything you know has changed completely. When Chloe Chang gets dumped via USPS after moving across the country from NYC to LA, her first instinct is to throw her box of memories in the garbage. Instead, she starts buying other teenagers' break-up boxes to create an art exhibit. Heartifacts Opening night is going great until she spots Daniel Kwak illicitly filming his best friend's reaction to his ex's box. When she tries to stop him, an intense discussion ends up launching a creative partnership and friendship, and a major crush for Chloe. There's just one problem: Daniel is dead set on not being another rebound. Five times he's been the guy who makes the girls he's dating realize they want to get back with their ex. And he refuses for there to be a sixth. She insists she's over her ex, but when he shows up unexpectedly with his new girlfriend, it turns out Daniel was right. She isn't ready for a new relationship. She throws herself into making Heartifacts successful, but flashy influencers threaten her original vision of the exhibit. To create the exhibit, she's always wanted, Chloe needs to go back to basics, learn to work with artists in a more collaborative way, and discover what love can be. Only then will she convince Daniel she's truly ready for everything they could be to one another.

The Media Swirl Carol Vernallis, 2023-02-20 From fan-generated content on TikTok to music videos, the contemporary media landscape is becoming ever more vast, spectacular, and intense. In The Media Swirl, Carol Vernallis examines short-form audiovisual media: Beyoncé's Lemonade, brief sequences from Baz Luhrmann's The Great Gatsby, TikTok challenges, YouTube mashups, commercials, and many other examples to offer ways of understanding digital media. She analyzes music videos by Beyoncé, Lady Gaga, Janelle Monáe, Kendrick Lamar, Anderson Paak, and others to outline how sound and image enhance each other and shape a viewer's mood. Responding to today's political media landscape through discussions of Fox News and Presidential inaugurations Vernallis shows how a media literacy that exceeds newscasts and campaign advertising is central to engaging with the democratic commons Forays into industry studies neuroscience and ethics also inform her readings By creating our own content and knowing what corporations the wealthy and the government do through media Vernallis contends we can create a more just world
