With chapters written by experts with years of experience in schools this new edition has been completely updated to incorporate current views about the literacy field in relation to governmental changes and regulations such as the No Child Left Behind Act. Offering specific guidelines that literacy leaders can use to improve their programs the text covers selecting materials assessing the quality of teachers providing staff development working with different types of learners and incorporating writing and technology. Journal of Developmental Education, 2006

Current Index to Journals in Education, 1992    Creating Literacy Instruction for All Students Thomas G. Gunning, 2005 With its inclusive view of literacy Creating Literacy Instruction for All Students emphasizes methods that have been validated by research and practice while delivering the basics of all major aspects of reading and writing. The Fifth Edition of this best selling book continues to be a comprehensive practical text that provides its readers with step by step guidance for teaching reading and writing. Written by distinguished author Tom Gunning this text features sample lessons for virtually every major literacy skill strategy and offers numerous reinforcement suggestions and generous listings of materials. With its careful balance between the theory and the practice readers are always given the theories behind the methods encouraging them to choose, adapt and construct their own approaches as they create a balanced program of literacy instruction. Special emphasis has been given to adapting instruction for English language learners, struggling readers and writers and special needs students throughout the book. Unlike comparable texts the new edition stresses effective steps for closing the gap between achieving and struggling readers as mandated by the No Child Left Behind legislation and Reading First.    Student Study Guide Pearson,Janna Siegel Robertson,2006-03-20    Library Media Connection, 2004
