My Dad Superhero Sara Cook:

My Dad the Superhero! Sara Cook, 2015-12-07 Everyone is a hero in someone's eyes This is a book about a dad that is an amputee and his son Milo who thinks his dad's prosthetic leg is magic and that his dad is a Superhero Join them at show and tell to learn more This story is meant to shed a light on physical disabilities and educate children about prosthetics About the Author My name is Sara Cook I have lived in NH all my life I graduated from Johnson State College in VT Bachelors in Behavior Science I once went across country with my best friend in a veggie oil car to raise awareness of alternative fuels Anthony the Superhero and I recently became parents to our amazing baby boy Milo We have a history of writing and playing music together We also enjoy art nature food and spending time with our friends and families This children's book is something I dreamed up it's close to our hearts and I hope to help others and also bring joy A Tale from All My Sisters

Aryah, 2022-08-31 The seventy two individual short stories in the book are based on the tales of seventy two real women These tales are a reflection of the diverse lives and dilemmas that many women all over the world today face and the inner strength that women can have to overcome adversity The book begins with a story of a woman who leaves everything she has behind and takes the leap of faith in moving to England in the early 1960s It then follows different women covering issues such as homelessness cancer adoption death motherhood and transgender It highlights the reality that age race religion and class are not the only difficulties that women all over the world encounter Cigarettes, Inc. Nan Enstad, 2018-12-10

Traditional narratives of capitalist change often rely on the myth of the willful entrepreneur from the global North who transforms the economy and delivers modernity for good or ill to the rest of the world With Cigarettes Inc Nan Enstad upends this story revealing the myriad cross cultural encounters that produced corporate life before World War II In this startling account of innovation and expansion Enstad uncovers a corporate network rooted in Jim Crow segregation that stretched between the United States and China and beyond Cigarettes Inc teems with a global cast from Egyptian American and Chinese entrepreneurs to a multiracial set of farmers merchants factory workers marketers and even baseball players jazz musicians and sex workers Through their stories Cigarettes Inc accounts for the cigarette's spectacular rise in popularity and in the process offers nothing less than a sweeping reinterpretation of corporate power itself CMJ New Music

Report, 1999-09-13 CMJ New Music Report is the primary source for exclusive charts of non commercial and college radio airplay and independent and trend forward retail sales CMJ's trade publication compiles playlists for college and non commercial stations often a prelude to larger success Connecting Fathers, Children, and Reading Sara
