Benefits Of Keeping A Journal

Almost every successful person seems to have kept a journal in one form or another Success in this case is not defined by money but overall happiness Whether or not they called it journaling doesn't matter as they kept a record of their goals success failures feelings and their daily life Your journal contains the answers to your most burning questions It is literally the best self help book you could ever read Just some of the benefits of journaling are

- Allows you to reflect on your life and the changes you are choosing to make or not make
- Clarifies your thinking and as Tony Robbins says Clarity is Power
- Houses all your million dollar ideas that normally get lost in all the noise of life
- Exposes repeated patterns of behaviors that get you the results you DON'T want
- Acts as a bucket for you to brain dump in a cluttered mind
- Leads to a disorganized life
- Revisits daily situations giving you a chance to look at it with a different perspective
- Doesn't crash and lose everything you put into it like electronics just like electronics though don't get it wet

You may want to keep multiple journals One that contains your truest and most secret feelings that you guard heavily but need a way to express Another that contains all those fantastic ideas dreams and awesome goals Maybe just something you doodle in No matter how you use it getting into the daily habit of journaling has the potential to improve the quality of your life

How To Use A journal

Let's look past the simple fact you know how to physically write in a journal and dig into how to actually use your journal It might contain all the secrets to life's biggest problems but unless you know how to uncover those secrets they stay hidden away in your words Let the words flow from the heart and be filled with emotions no holdbacks Make a daily journaling schedule Each and every day take the time to record your thoughts morning and night If you love to type notes into your phone all day transfer them to your journal after Sit in a quiet spot and allow yourself to be judgement free Your journal is not a reason to turn yourself into an emotional punching bag Start small You do not need to write a specific number of words Just the right amount of honest words that let you feel a sense of being free from negativity and energized with possibility If you write in your journal like someone is going to read it you will ever allow yourself to fully express what needs to be expressed Write like no one will ever read it because it is likely no one ever will unless you want them to Write how you loved something were mad at someone wished something was different or anything you need to Just do it Start today writing in your journal You could even put Today I bought this awesome journal and will recommend all my friends do the same Wink Wink

Maltz, Stephen K. Rice, 2015-06-09 This book covers research design and methodology from a unique and engaging point of view based on accounts from influential researchers across the field of Criminology and Criminal Justice Most books and articles about research in criminology and criminal justice focus on how the research was carried out the data that were used the methods that were applied the results that were achieved While these are all important they do not present a complete picture Envisioning Criminology Researchers on Research as a Process of Discovery aims to fill that gap by providing nuance the back story of why researchers selected particular problems how they approached those problems and how their background training and experience affected the approaches they took As the contributions in this book demonstrate research is not a cut and dried process as all too many methods books imply but a living breathing and in some ways quirky process that is influenced by non scientific factors The path taken by a researcher is important and an appreciation of his or her background experience knowledge and the setbacks and triumphs of performing the research provides a much more complete picture of how research is done The twenty eight chapters in this book describe the back stories of their authors which serve to enlighten readers about the interplay between the personal and the methodological While primarily aimed as a textbook this work will also be of interest to researchers in Criminology and Criminal Justice and related Social and Behavioral Science fields as an account of how seminal researchers in the field developed their key contributions Transit Journal ,1922 Typographical Journal ,1889 The Journal of Education ,1881 The New Zealand Law Journal ,1940
