after the start of the Great Tribulation Jerry would be eleven years old Jerry's parents were particularly vulnerable to the promise of relief from the world's hardships. When they joined the church in 1960 they were living in a two room apartment in a dangerous Chicago housing project with the first four of their seven children and most significantly they both were blind having lost their sight to childhood accidents. They took comfort in the belief that they had been chosen for a special afterlife even if it meant following a religion with a white supremacist ideology and dutifully sending tithes to Armstrong whose church boasted more than 100 000 members and more than 80 million in annual revenues at its height. When the prophecy of the 1972 Great Tribulation does not materialize Jerry is considerably less disappointed than relieved. When the 1975 end time prophecy also fails he finally begins to question his faith and imagine the possibility of choosing a destiny of his own.
