My Grandma Likes To Say:

My Grandma Likes to Say Denise Brennan-Nelson, 2013-08-15 Following in the footsteps of My Momma Likes to Say comes the charming My Grandma Likes to Say. Thousands of proverbs and idioms can be found in the English language. Derived from many different sources, these expressions are a wonderful link to history and culture and can be an instructive tool in language education. That's a horse of a different color. My grandma likes to say I'm not sure what she means. But I like it anyway. Polka dots and stripes. Yellow, orange, and blue. What color would a horse be? If it were up to YOU. Original paintings conceived from a child's point of view provide a hilarious visual interpretation of those sayings oft quoted by the senior members of our families. Denise Brennan-Nelson also wrote Someday Is Not a Day of the Week, winner of an IRA Children's Choice award. Atireless promoter and enthusiastic speaker, Denise visits countless schools and educational conferences each year and runs a motivational speaking program through her company, Goosebumps. She lives with her family in Howell, Michigan. In addition to the Likes to Say books, Jane Monroe Donovan has illustrated three other titles for Sleeping Bear Press, including the bookseller holiday favorite Winter's Gift and the recently released Black Beauty's Early Days in the Meadow. Jane lives in Pinckney, Michigan. Weaving Women's Lives Louise Lamphere, 2007 Well-known anthropologist Lamphere highlights the voices of three generations of Navajo women who are weaving their traditional beliefs with modern American culture to create a new blueprint for their lives and the next generations. Hold Love Strong Matthew Aaron Goodman, 2009-04-14 In this poignant tale of self-discovery, a young man struggles to survive the New York City housing projects in the face of familial, communal, and personal devastation. Born to a thirteen-year-old in the bathroom of his family's small apartment, Abraham Singleton enters a world laden with the obstacles inherent in an impoverished community. In spite of the crack epidemic and the HIV crisis that ravage their neighborhood, the Singleton family—cousins, an uncle, an aunt, Abraham, and his mother—is held together by Abraham's heroic grandmother whose deep faith and stoic nature have always given them a sense of wholeness and hope. But when the family goes through several harrowing losses, not even his grandmother may be strong enough to lead them through. At the center of this story is Abraham, the youngest of the Singletons. Deeply intuitive and cerebral, he is determined to thrive in a place that has destroyed the dreams of those around him. College means opportunity, yet it also means leaving behind those he loves. Abraham's journey into adulthood will break his heart but ultimately offer the possibility of redemption. In this haunting, lyrical, and evocative novel, Matthew Goodman composes a paean to the power of family and belonging in the African American community. Hold Love Strong is a spellbinding coming-of-age tale about love, hope, and the will to survive, and a stunning universal story about the incredible capacity of the human spirit. The Gospel in All Lands, 1893 Golden Hours, 1879 Christian Work, 1894 The Story Within Us Megan Sweeney, 2012-09-15 This volume features in-depth oral interviews with eleven incarcerated women, each of whom offers a narrative of her life and her reading experiences within prison walls.
