My Place An Australian Classic:

Australian Classics Jane Gleeson-White, 2010 What are the classic works of Australian literature And what can they tell us about ourselves and the land we live in Providing a selected overview of Australia s greatest literature Australian Classics is an accessible companion to our literature and a story of writing in Australia from the nineteenth century to the present

Australian Class Knowledge of Life Kaye Price, 2015-09-17 Knowledge of Life is the first textbook to provide students with a comprehensive guide to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Australia The result of extensive research and experience it offers fresh insights into a range of topics and most importantly is written by Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander academics It addresses topics ranging from history and reconciliation to literature and politics to art sport and health It presents social cultural and political perspectives on these areas in a manner that is accessible to undergraduate students from a range of backgrounds and academic disciplines Each chapter opens with a pr cis of the author s journey to engage students and offer them an insight into the author s experiences These authentic voices encourage students to think about the wider issues surrounding each chapter and their real life implications This timely publication emphasises the importance of relationships between non Indigenous and Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander cultures

Shadowlines Stephen Kinnane, 2020-06-01 A powerful and lyrical work by a writer of vision and imagination Shadow Lines is the story of Jessie Argyle born in the remote East Kimberley and taken from her Aboriginal family at the age of five and Edward Smith a young Englishman escaping the rigid strictures of London In a society deeply divided on racial lines Edward and Jessie met fell in love and against strong opposition eventually married Despite unrelenting surveillance and harassment the Smith home was a centre for Aboriginal cultural and social life for over thirty years

Soaring with the Sugarbird Lady Dianne Wolfer, 2025-03-04 Imagine flying solo crisscrossing the north west of Australia in your own plane and single handedly delivering lifesaving vaccines to remote communities Robin Miller did this and at a time when most people didn t think women should be pilots at all Her arrival seemed like magic to the outback children who received her polio vaccine on sugar cubes Before long she became known as the Sugarbird Lady And this was just the start of Robin s extraordinary real life adventures

My Place Sally Morgan, 2001 My Place traces an aboriginal woman s experiences as a young girl in suburban Perth in the fifties and sixties Through the use of memories and images of her childhood and adolescence undiscovered secrets begin to come to light Gradually the entire family is pulled into the vortex of these revelations and people who have always been silent are allowed to tell their tales Winner of the 1987 Australian Human Rights Award for Literature and the 1990 Order of Australia Book Prize My Place is an Australian classic My Place is Sally Morgan s first book and upon publications it immediately achieved best seller status

Teaching Australian and New Zealand Literature Nicholas Birns, Nicole Moore, Sarah Shieff, 2017-05-01 Offers techniques for teaching Australian and New Zealand literature in college and discusses the history of the two countries Maori and Aboriginal texts colonialism gender landscapes violence indigenous aesthetics ethics and crime fiction Includes information on editions reference works and online resources Gives syllabus suggestions for undergraduate and graduate courses Span, 1993 Legal Education Through an Indigenous Lens Nicole Watson, Heather Douglas, 2024-12-04 This book provides a comprehensive resource for accommodating and pursuing Indigenous perspectives in legal education The book is divided into three sections The first section highlights the continuing issues that Indigenous people face in law schools and universities including the ongoing impacts of colonisation and intergenerational trauma institutional racism and exclusion This section also includes chapters that explore arguments for the recognition of Indigenous legal knowledge and of the impact of settler law and the incorporation of Indigenous concepts laws and ways of thinking about settler law across the curriculum The second section explores how Indigenous ways of reading and thinking about settler law make a difference to how settler law is understood and interpreted Contributors consider the power of storytelling and address the prospect of law's decolonisation The third section of the book grapples with how traditional law school subjects can be taught through an Indigenous lens including torts public law criminal law and sentencing clinical legal education and native title Throughout the book demonstrates the importance of and offers practical advice for teaching law in a way that includes critical Indigenous perspectives This book will be of enormous value to teachers researchers students in law legal studies and Indigenous studies and others with an interest in decolonising legal education The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license The House that Was Eureka Nadia Wheatley, 2013-09-25 Winner of the New South Wales Premier's Children's Book Award 1985 It's 1981 and Evie is sixteen She has left school but can't find work and her family has just moved into the run down inner Sydney suburb of Newtown Noel lives in the adjoining terrace house He's fifteen not taking school seriously and fed up with looking after his ancient bed ridden grandmother As a friendship grows between Evie and Noel the past is set back in motion and the events of the 1930s Depression era begin to play out in the high unemployment times of the early 1980s and the house again is the centre of the Sydney anti eviction campaign of 1931 Based on historical fact meticulously researched The House that Was Eureka is a critically acclaimed novel about a history we all share Nadia Wheatley is a long standing fixture of Australian literature having written fiction and non fiction for both children and adults Seven of her books have been Children's Book Council of Australia Honour Books including Five Times Dizzy The House that Was Eureka and My Place She has won the New South Wales Premier's Children's Book Prize twice for The House that Was Eureka and Five Times Dizzy and is known and respected for her contributions to Indigenous communities and the preservation of environment Nadia is currently the Artist in Residence at The University of Sydney textclassics.com.au A fine piece of work well researched and beautifully plotted around the Depression when people were tipped out of their houses by landlords and unemployed men took to the roads with swags Sydney Morning Herald An absorbing and wholly convincing recreation of the Depression of the 1930s with the traumatic experiences of the Cruise family destitute and threatened with eviction running parallel to the problems of today Australian Book Review Wheatley's book has urgency and a fierce strength The characters from both eras are alive and flying freedom fighters who are aware that they are making history Maurice Saxby Australia, 1996 The Classic and the Beautiful from the Literature of Three Thousand Years Henry Coppée, 1892 The Classic and the Beautiful from the Literature of Three Thousand Years Henry Coppée, 1898 Australia Tony Wheeler, 1989 Sixth updated edition of a travel guide first published in 1977 Provides general factual information on the country as well as information of specific interest to the traveller and tourist including transportation by various means accommodation for a range of budgets outdoor activities and a glossary of Australian slang The core of the book is divided into the states and territories of Australia Included indexes of maps text and national parks The Australian Journal, 1872 Australian Literature Graham Huggan, 2007-09-27 The Oxford Studies in Postcolonial Literatures series offers stimulating and accessible introductions to definitive topics and key genres and regions within the rapidly diversifying field of postcolonial literary studies in English In a provocative contribution to the series Graham Huggan presents fresh readings of an outstanding sometimes deeply unsettling national literature whose writers and readers just as unmistakably belong to the wider world Australian literature is not the unique province of Australian readers and critics nor is its exclusive task to provide an internal commentary on changing national concerns Huggan's book adopts a transnational approach motivated by postcolonial interests in which contemporary ideas taken from postcolonial criticism and critical race theory are productively combined and imaginatively transformed Rejecting the fashionable view that Australia is not and never will be postcolonial Huggan argues on the contrary that Australian literature like other settler literatures requires close attention to postcolonial methods and concerns A postcolonial approach to Australian literature he suggests is more than just a case for a more inclusive nationalism it also involves a general acknowledgement of the nation's changed relationship to an increasingly globalized world As such the book helps to deprovincialize Australian literary studies Australian Literature also contributes to debates about the continuing history of racism in Australia a history in which the nation's literature has played a constitutive role as both product and producer of racial tensions and anxieties nowhere more visible than in the discourse it has produced about race both within and beyond the national context Update, 2003 Making My Place Nadia Wheatley, 2010 MAKING MY PLACE tells the story of how an Australian picture book classic became a television series soon to screen on ABC TV Ages 8 12 Well really it's about the land we live on and the friendships that we make Generation after generation of different people are all coming into Australia and all these characters share the one place which is My Place Maddy Madden Laura 2008 Making My Place tells the story of how an Australian picture book classic has become a television series the original picture book by Nadia Wheatley and Donna Rawlins depicts the history of a small piece of land from the present day back into Aboriginal time through the stories of the various children who lived there Winner of the Children's Book Council of Australia

s Book of the Year Award for Younger Readers 1988 and other Australian and international awards My Place has delighted two generations of readers In this companion book Nadia Wheatley uses stills from the series and interviews with young actors and experienced film makers to give insights into the stories told in the My Place television series and the history that underlies them Ages 8 12 Premieres December 4 8pm ABC3 Also screens on ABC1 Feb 28 7 30 8 30 2 eps run back to back each Sunday evening till finished The Oxford Literary History of Australia Bruce Bennett, Jennifer Strauss, Chris Wallace-Crabbe, 1998 This new literary history rethinks the landscapes of Australian literature in an engaging style and takes into account contemporary theories of literature and associated art forms The Wine Spectator , 1993 The Australian Woman's Magazine and Domestic Journal , 1882 Includes book reviews

My Place An Australian Classic Introduction

In today's digital age, the availability of My Place An Australian Classic books and manuals for download has revolutionized the way we access information. Gone are the days of physically flipping through pages and carrying heavy textbooks or manuals. With just a few clicks, we can now access a wealth of knowledge from the comfort of our own homes or on the go. This article will explore the advantages of My Place An Australian Classic books and manuals for download, along with some popular platforms that offer these resources. One of the significant advantages of My Place An Australian Classic books and manuals for download is the cost-saving aspect. Traditional books and manuals can be costly, especially if you need to purchase several of them for educational or professional purposes. By accessing My Place An Australian Classic versions, you eliminate the need to spend money on physical copies. This not only saves you money but also reduces the environmental impact associated with book production and transportation. Furthermore, My Place An Australian Classic books and manuals for download are incredibly convenient. With just a computer or smartphone and an internet connection, you can access a vast library of resources on any subject imaginable. Whether you're a student looking for textbooks, a professional seeking industry-specific manuals, or someone interested in self-improvement, these digital resources provide an efficient and accessible means of acquiring knowledge. Moreover, PDF books and manuals offer a range of benefits compared to other digital formats. PDF files are designed to retain their formatting regardless of the device used to open them. This ensures that the content appears exactly as intended by the author, with no loss of formatting or missing graphics. Additionally, PDF files can be easily annotated, bookmarked, and searched for specific terms, making them highly practical for studying or referencing. When it comes to accessing My Place An Australian Classic books and manuals, several platforms offer an extensive collection of resources. One such platform is Project Gutenberg, a nonprofit organization that provides over 60,000 free eBooks. These books are primarily in the public domain, meaning they can be freely distributed and downloaded. Project Gutenberg offers a wide range of classic literature, making it an excellent resource for literature enthusiasts. Another popular platform for My Place An Australian Classic books and manuals is Open Library. Open Library is an initiative of the Internet Archive, a non-profit organization dedicated to digitizing cultural artifacts and making them accessible to the public.

Open Library hosts millions of books, including both public domain works and contemporary titles. It also allows users to borrow digital copies of certain books for a limited period, similar to a library lending system. Additionally, many universities and educational institutions have their own digital libraries that provide free access to PDF books and manuals. These libraries often offer academic texts, research papers, and technical manuals, making them invaluable resources for students and researchers. Some notable examples include MIT OpenCourseWare, which offers free access to course materials from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and the Digital Public Library of America, which provides a vast collection of digitized books and historical documents. In conclusion, My Place An Australian Classic books and manuals for download have transformed the way we access information. They provide a cost-effective and convenient means of acquiring knowledge, offering the ability to access a vast library of resources at our fingertips. With platforms like Project Gutenberg, Open Library, and various digital libraries offered by educational institutions, we have access to an ever-expanding collection of books and manuals. Whether for educational, professional, or personal purposes, these digital resources serve as valuable tools for continuous learning and self-improvement. So why not take advantage of the vast world of My Place An Australian Classic books and manuals for download and embark on your journey of knowledge?
