Myth Of Iron Shaka In History:

Myth of Iron Dan Wylie,2006 Re examines the evidence of what is known or said to be known about the life of the Zulu leader Shaka Myth of Iron Dan Wylie,2006 Over the decades we have heard a great deal about Shaka the famous or infamous of Zulu leaders It may come as a surprise therefore that we do not know when he was born nor what he looked like nor precisely when or why he was assassinated This book lays out the available evidence mainly hitherto under utilised Zulu oral testimonies The Creation of the Zulu Kingdom, 1815-1828 Elizabeth A. Eldredge,2014-10-30 This scholarly account traces the emergence of the Zulu Kingdom in South Africa in the early nineteenth century under the rule of the ambitious and iconic King Shaka In contrast to recent literary analyses of myths of Shaka this book uses the richness of Zulu oral traditions and a comprehensive body of written sources to provide a compelling narrative and analysis of the events and people of the era of Shaka s rule The oral traditions portray Shaka as rewarding courage and loyalty and punishing failure as ordering the targeted killing of his own subjects both warriors and civilians to ensure compliance to his rule and as arrogant and shrewd but kind to the poor and the mentally disabled The rich and diverse oral traditions transmitted from generation to generation reveal the important roles and fates of men and women royal and subject from the perspectives of those who experienced Shaka s rule and the dramatic emergence of the Zulu Kingdom African Perspectives of King Dingane

kaSenzangakhona Sifiso Mxolisi Ndlovu,2017-08-06 This book examines the active role played by Africans in the pre colonial production of historical knowledge in South Africa focusing on perspectives of the second king of amaZulu King Dingane It draws upon a wealth of oral traditions izibongo and the work of public intellectuals such as Magolwane kaMkhathini Jiyane and Mshongweni to present African perspectives of King Dingane as multifaceted and in some cases constructed according to socio political formations and aimed at particular audiences By bringing African perspectives to the fore this innovative historiography centralizes indigenous African languages in the production of historical knowledge

God's Interpreters: The Making of an American Mission and an African Church Les Switzer,2023-10-20 This study of the pioneer mission to the Zulu people differs from others in South African mission studies by offering a more nuanced understanding of the relationship between mission and church during the formative stages in the making of an African Christian community both in America and in British Natal Critical scholars continue to view the Western mission enterprise as an adjunct if not a tool of colonialism or at best a clash of cultures between white mission powerbrokers and powerless black Christian acolytes The author argues that they were partners from the beginning and in this endeavor the Christian identities of the missionaries as well as the Zulu were changed forever Colonial Discourse and the Jesus-fiction of

King Chaka Daniel M. Mengara,2024-09-05 Although Chaka is considered an African literary masterpiece Thomas Mofolo has paradoxically been dismissed by critics as an author naively extolling the virtues of the white man s civilizing mission in Africa Daniel M Mengara s Colonial Discourse and the Jesus fiction of King Chaka How Thomas Mofolo s Chaka Turned the Zulu Monarch into a Messiah offers a rereading of Chaka to show that Mofolo in fact astutely deconstructs and then reconstructs Zulu king Chaka into a messianic figure whose life trajectory and destiny blasphemously mirror those of Jesus Christ. This volume avoids the pitfalls of the traditional mission interpretations of Chaka and provides an interpretative inflection that paints a more nuanced and balanced picture and understanding of Thomas Mofolo's fictional account of the mythologized historical figure Mengara. It delves into the circumstances and controversies surrounding the publication of the novel and shows how Mofolo fied King Chaka in a sly yet sacrilegious ploy to subvert the colonial discourse and missionary ethos of his time. This book stands as a reassessment of Thomas Mofolo's often ignored nationalism and calls for a rediscovery of Mofolo's work in ways that resituate him within the history of the African novel as the undisputed pioneer of engaged African literature.

Journal of Natal and Zulu History, 2006 History in Africa, 2008 Anglo-Zulu War, 1879 Harold E. Raugh Jr., 2011-06-01 The Anglo Zulu War was one of many colonial campaigns in which the British Army served as the instrument of British imperialism. The conflict fought against a native adversary the British initially underestimated is remarkable for battles that included perhaps the most humiliating defeat in British military history the Battle of Isandlwana January 22 1879 and one of its most heroic feats of martial arms the defense of Rorke's Drift January 22-23 1879. While lasting only six months it is one of the most examined studied and debated conflicts in Victorian military history. Anglo Zulu War 1879 A Selected Bibliography is a research guide and tool for identifying obscure publications and source materials in order to encourage continued original and thought provoking contributions to this popular field of historical study. From the student or neophyte to the study of the Anglo Zulu War its battles and its opponents to the more experienced historian or scholar this selected bibliography is a must for anyone interested in the 1879 Anglo Zulu War.

The International Journal of African Historical Studies, 2009 African Research & Documentation, 2010 African Studies Review, 2008 Tribing and Untribing the Archive Carolyn Hamilton, Nessa Leibhammer, 2016 These volumes track how the domain of the tribal and traditional was marked out and came to be sharply distinguished from modernity how it was denied a changing history and an archive and was endowed instead with a timeless culture. These volumes also offer strategies for engaging with the materials differently from the interventions effected in contemporary artworks to the inserting of nameless timeless objects of material culture into histories of individualized and politicized experience. The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History Bonnie G. Smith, 2008-01-23 The Encyclopedia of Women in World History captures the experiences of women throughout world history in a comprehensive 4 volume work. Although there has been extensive research on women in history by region no text or reference work has comprehensively covered the role women have played throughout world history. The past thirty years have seen an explosion of research and effort to present the experiences and contributions of women not only in the Western world but across the globe. Historians have investigated women's daily lives in virtually every region and have researched the leadership roles women have filled across time and region They have found and demonstrated that there is virtually no historical social or demographic change in which women have not been involved and by which their lives have not been affected The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History benefits greatly from these efforts and experiences and illuminates how women worldwide have influenced and been influenced by these historical social and demographic changes The Encyclopedia contains over 1 250 signed articles arranged in an A Z format for ease of use The entries cover six main areas biographies geography and history comparative culture and society including adoption abortion performing arts organizations and movements such as the Egyptian Uprising and the Paris Commune womens and gender studies and topics in world history that include slave trade globalization and disease With its rich and insightful entries by leading scholars and experts this reference work is sure to be a valued go to resource for scholars college and high school students and general readers alike Africa Quarterly, 2007 The African Book Publishing Record, 2006 Orb and Sceptre Peter Limb, 2008 Orb and Sceptre brings together recent cutting edge work on British imperialism by Australian researchers closely associated with Norman Etherington one of Australia s most eminent scholars in this field Orb and Sceptre reflects the trajectory of British Empire history in the academy over the last forty years Demands for new nationalist histories for decolonised territories have combined with renewed attention to the role of the periphery in the making and unmaking of empires This has formed an explosive mix that has blown apart traditional conceptions of Empire and Commonwealth history The colonial construction of knowledge is a principal theme in Orb and Sceptre Former colonies and dependencies looked to a fresh generation of historians to write their histories generally conceived as grand narratives of escape from imperial shackles At the same time a new wave of scholars influenced by feminism neo Marxism dependency theory and postcolonialism laid the groundwork for a ren African Studies Association Annual Meeting. [Program] African Studies Association. Annual Meeting, 2008 To Speak of this Land Duncan Brown, 2006 Questions of identity belonging and place are crucial issues in South Africa today To Speak of this Land explores these issues in a way that is academically rigorous but refreshingly accessible Duncan Brown s focus is South Africa spanning Bushman storytelling rock painting and aboriginal land claims African Christian identity formations Mazisi Kunene s Emperor Shaka the Great Ronnie Govender s Cato Manor stories the poetry of Douglas Livingstone and the rap music of Prophets of da City but he draws on comparative material from elsewhere in the world as well as stressing the global aspects of local identities To Speak of this Land offers thought provoking answers for a South African context to this internationally challenging question Toxic Belonging? Dan Wylie, 2008 Southern Africa TM s literatures brim with references to the natural world its landscapes and its animals Both fictional and non fictional works express ongoing debates often highly politicised concerning its various groups TM senses of identity and belonging in relation to the land and its denizens This often involves a pervasive tension between Western TM settler societies TM conceptions of modernity and indigenous world views each complicating the often simplistic binarisms drawn between them In this selection of papers from the 2006
